TOP-RANKED TIGERS BATTLE 9TH-RANKED SOONERS FOR BIG 12 TITLE

In a season of continuing firsts, the newly-annointed #1 team in the land, the Missouri Tigers (11-1 overall, 7-1 in Big 12 Conference play), winners of their first-ever Big 12 North Division title, will square off against the Oklahoma Sooners (10-2, 6-2) in Mizzou's first-ever Big 12 Championship Game appearance. Kickoff for the 2007 Dr. Pepper Big 12 Championship Game is set for 7 p.m. in the Alamodome in San Antonio.

The Tigers are coming off of arguably the biggest win in school history, as MU knocked off bitter rival and formerly 2nd-ranked Kansas, 36-28 last Saturday in Kansas City, Mo. The win vaulted Mizzou to #1 in the AP and BCS polls and gave the Tigers their first North Division crown (1st league title of any kind since 1969).

The 9th-ranked Sooners are also coming off a rivalry victory, as they rolled to a 49-17 win over Oklahoma State in the Bedlam Series. Oklahoma went 8-0 this season at home, and stands 2-2 away from Norman.

TIGERS CLAIM NORTH DIVISION TITLE

The Missouri Tigers, winners of six straight contests, look to keep the momentum going on their magical 2007 season, as they face longtime nemesis Oklahoma in the 2007 Dr. Pepper Big 12 Championship Game Saturday in San Antonio.

The title game will be MU's first-ever such appearance, as Mizzou won its first-ever Big 12 North Division title with its 36-28 win last Saturday over arch-rival Kansas in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium, knocking the Jayhawks from their unbeaten and 2nd-ranked status.

Mizzou enters Saturday's game as the hunted, holding down the #1 spot in both the Associated Press Top-25 poll, as well as the much-coveted #1 spot in the BCS standings. The latter, of course, means that a Tiger win Saturday over Oklahoma would put MU in the BCS title game on Jan. 7th in New Orleans, La.

MIZZOU NEW TO TITLE GAME, NOT SO MUCH TO NEUTRAL-SITE MATCHUPS

While Mizzou can count its previous Big 12 Championship experience on exactly zero fingers, MU has been very impressive this season playing in championship-like neutral-site atmospheres.

The Tigers stand 2-0 on the season in neutral-site affairs, with wins over current #15 (BCS) Illinois and the aforementioned win over former #2 (current #5 BCS) Kansas last week.

The Illinois win came in the season opener, and was played in the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis before a roughly half-half crowd of 62,352 Tiger and Illini fans.

Last Saturday saw the Tigers jump to a 21-0 lead into the 3rd quarter over the previously unbeaten and 2nd-ranked Jayhawks, before withstanding a late KU rally to post the landmark win before a split and raucous crowd of 80,537.

TEXAS TIGERS RETURN TO HOME STATE

The Lone Star State has been kind to the Missouri Football program over the years, as Gary Pinkel and his staff have combed the talent-rich state very successfully to find talented players.

The Tigers will have a nice Texas contingent taking the field Saturday, as 18 players on the MU roster hail from the state (the most of any state other than Missouri on the MU roster).

Included in that total are 6 starters for the Tigers, with 5 of them on the defensive side of the ball (DE Tommy Chavis, DT Ziggy Hood, S Del Howard, DE Stryker Sulak and LB Sean Weatherspoon). On offense, QB Chase Daniel is the lone starter who hails from the Lone Star State, but significant contributors include WR Danario Alexander, TB Earl Goldsmith and WR Jared Perry.

WR Danario Alexander (Marlin)
S Mack Breed (San Antonio)
DE Tommy Chavis (Orange)
DE Tyler Crane (Allen)
QB Chase Daniel (Southlake)
LB Connell Davis (Portland)
TB Earl Goldsmith (Denton)
DL Dominique Hamilton (El Paso)
DT Ziggy Hood (Amarillo)

S Del Howard (Dallas)
S Gilbert Moya (Jasper)
WR Jared Perry (LaMarque)
OL Mike Prince (Southlake)
DB Kevin Rutland (Houston)
DE Stryker Sulak (Rockdale)
DB La'Roderick Thomas (Dallas)
QB J.P. Tillman (Houston)
LB Sean Weatherspoon (Jasper)

#1/2/1 Mizzou vs. #9/8/9 Oklahoma — Dec. 1, 2007

MIZZOU-OKLAHOMA SERIES HISTORY

Mizzou and Oklahoma have played 92 previous times, and Oklahoma holds a commanding 64-23-5 edge in the series, including a current string of 5 straight wins in Big 12 play since MUs last win in 1998 (20-6 in Columbia).

The Sooners have won 17 of the last 18 meetings overall dating back to 1984, and 18 of the last 21 going back to 1981 when the two schools were brethren in the old Big Eight Conference.

Mizzou and Oklahoma play for a game trophy that is called the Tiger-Sooner Peace Pipe, with the winner claiming the traveling trophy.

The ceremony of smoking the peace pipe was inaugurated in 1929 by Chester M. Brewer, Mizzou's director of athletics, and by members of Mystical Seven, a University of Missouri honorary group. The peace pipe was donated by Mr. R.L. Hill, an M man and former president of the Missouri student body. The ceremony takes place during halves, with the Mystical Seven representing Mizzou, and a similar organization representing Oklahoma.

Mizzou won the peace pipe the very first year it was up for grabs, in 1929, by claiming a 13-0 shutout win over Oklahoma in Columbia. Ever since the pipe has been in play, OU leads by a 55-14-4 count, while leading the series overall by a 64-23-5 edge (series started in 1902).

LAST MEETING: #6 OKLAHOMA 41, #11 MIZZOU 31

The Tigers will be looking Saturday to exact some revenge against Oklahoma and avenge MU's only loss of the 2007 season.

Back on Oct. 13th, Mizzou went toe-to-toe on the road with the 6th-ranked team in the nation, holding a 24-23 lead early in the 4th quarter, before the homestanding Sooners took advantage of key Tiger mistakes to hold on for a hardfought 41-31 over the 11th-ranked visitors.

The Tigers showed great resiliency all night long in the hostile environment of 85,041 in attendance, and clawed back from a 23-10 deficit in the 3rd quarter, to take a 24-23 lead into the last period.

The lead was regained with help from different areas, as the offense first scored on a 10-yard end-around by WR Jeremy Maclin (his 2nd rushing TD of the night) with 4:41 left in the 3rd, followed by TB Jimmy Jackson's 4-yard plunge with 1:30 remaining. The latter possession was set up when the Sooners' Juaquin Iglesias fumbled a kickoff return, giving the ball back to the Tigers.

Leading 24-23 in the 4th, Mizzou had a golden opportunity slip out of its hands, literally, when SS Pig Brown couldn't hold onto a potential interception in MU's endzone on an errant ball thrown by OU quarterback Sam Bradford. The drop proved costly, as Bradford regrouped and led the Sooners the remaining 33 yards needed to regain the lead, at 29-24 with 12:26 left.

Mizzou signal caller Chase Daniel, who would end the night 37-of-47 passing for 361 yards with 1 TD and 2 INTs, was ready to lead another drive downfield, but on the ensuing possession, a fumbled exchange with Maclin spelled doom, as OU's Curtis Lofton alertly scooped the ball up at the Tiger 12-yardline and rambled into the endzone for a quick score that pushed the Sooner lead to 35-24 with 11:40 left.

That bit of disaster put the Tigers in a big hole, and forced the Tigers to abandon the run altogether, as Oklahoma sat back in pass defense. After the teams traded punts, Daniel was intercepted on a tipped pass near the sideline, and OU converted by driving only 24 yards for a game-icing TD, on TB Chris Brown's 3rd TD of the game.

Mizzou wouldn't die easily, though, as Daniel led an 80-yard TD drive that culminated in a 5-yard TD pass to TE Martin Rucker to account for the final score.

A year after Oklahoma scored all 26 points in a 26-10 win over Mizzou in Columbia off of Tiger turnovers and drive-extending penalties, the Sooners once again capitalized on MU miscues to win for a second straight year. In all, Mizzou committed four turnovers on the night in Norman – three interceptions and one fumble – that Oklahoma converted into 21 key points.

The Tigers, looking for the schools' first win in Norman since 1966, did their part in forcing a pair of Sooner fumbles that MU converted into 14 points, but the 4th-quarter mistakes proved to be too costly to overcome.

MIZZOU-OKLAHOMA FLASHBACK NOTES

- Despite playing without leading rusher Tony Temple (out w/ankle injury), Mizzou outgained Oklahoma on Oct. 13th by a total offense margin of 418-to-384. The Tigers gained nearly 135 more yards than Oklahoma was allowing coming into the game, and its defense held the Sooners nearly 100 yards below their season average coming in – OU came into the game ranked 11th in both total defense (283.33 ypg) and total offense (482.17 ypg)...

- Mizzou's 31 points scored were the most the Tigers have tallied against Oklahoma since winning a 44-10 game in Columbia in 1969, and the most scored by MU in Norman since 1960, when the Tigers won a 41-19 ballgame. That was also the 2nd-most scored in Norman against OU Coach Bob Stoops...

- WR Jeremy Maclin was an offensive star on the night in defeat, as he gained 189 all-purpose yards, including 104 on kickoff returns (one of which he returned 56 yards). He also ran 4 times for 32 yards and 2 TDs, while catching 5 passes for 53 yards...

- TE Chase Coffman led all receivers on the night with 10 catches for 102 yards – both career high totals...

- PK Jeff Wolfert was perfect on 4 PATs and 1 FG (19 yards), and he broke the MU record for most consecutive PATs made with his 3rd one of the night...

- Midwest City, Okla., native Lorenzo Williams made a big play in the 2nd quarter playing in his home state, as he got to OU QB Sam Bradford for a sack that helped stall a Sooner drive, and give momentum back to Mizzou. After notching a game-clinching sack for a safety with :12 seconds remaining last Saturday against Kansas, Williams now ranks 3rd on the MU career QB sack list, with 18.5 – a school record for interior linemen...

- MU won the time of possession battle (30:27 to OU's 29:33) for the 2nd-straight game, after owning a time advantage of 31:40 to 28:20 against Nebraska. That marked the 1st time since 2005 that MU has held a time of possession edge in consecutive Big 12 games, when the Tigers did so in back-to-back games against Texas (30:30) and at Oklahoma State (32:57)...

- P Adam Crossett did a nice job on the night, averaging 40.5 yards per punt on 4 tries, with 3 of his punts being downed inside the Sooner 20-yardline. He had a long of 51 yards on the night that was his longest of the season. He also handled kickoff duty for the first time this season, making 4 kicks and registering 1 touchback...

DANIEL, WOLFERT WIN BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS

The Big 12 Conference announced Monday morning that a pair of Tigers won weekly player of the week honors, as QB Chase Daniel won the offensive player of the week award, while PK Jeff Wolfert won special teams player of the week.

The honor for Daniel is the third time he's won the award this season, matching the honor for his previous performances against Nebraska and at Colorado. Last Saturday against #2 Kansas, Daniel completed 40-of-49 passes for 361 yards and 3 TDs with zero interceptions, and has led MU to #1 in the BCS standings for the 1st-time ever.

Wolfert was a perfect 6-of-6 on kicks in the KU win, including a pair of clutch 43-yard FGs in the 4th quarter that helped the Tigers hold off the hard-charging Jayhawks. It is the first weekly POW honor for Wolfert, who is 17-of-21 on FGs this season, and 62-of-62 on PATs.

TIGERS LOOKING FOR 1ST CONFERENCE TITLE SINCE 1969

A win Saturday over Oklahoma would give MU its first conference title since 1969. Mizzou has won 12 conference titles in its previous 116 seasons.

Missouri Valley – 1909, 1913, 1919, 1924, 1925, 1927

Big Six – 1939, 1941, 1942, 1945

Big Eight – 1960, 1969

TIGERS RISE TO #1 IN A.P. & BCS POLLS WITH WIN OVER KANSAS

After its 36-28 victory over then #2-ranked Kansas last Saturday, the Missouri Tigers ascended to the top of the heap in terms of the national rankings, much to the delight of Tiger Nation.

The #1 listing in the BCS polls is the first time attaining such a perch for the school, and the #1 ranking in the AP poll is just the 2nd week in school history that the Tigers have held the #1 spot – matching the only other time, which was a one-week stay there in 1960 before an upset loss to close the regular season.

This marks the 11th-consecutive week the Tigers have been ranked in 2007, and the Tigers have climbed to #1 despite not being ranked in the pre-season top-25.

The 7th week of BCS rankings was released Sunday, and the Tigers rose to a school-best #1 there, as well, and were one of 4 Big 12 Conference teams included in this week's top-25: #5 Kansas, #9 Oklahoma, and #20 Texas were the others.

A few notes about MU carrying a ranking into a game:

- – MU is 96-59-1 overall (61.9%) in its previous 156 games as a ranked team, but it is 0-1 alltime as the #1-ranked team, dropping its only game with that ranking, a 23-7 decision to unranked Kansas in the regular-season finale in 1960...

- – This will mark the 13th time that MU and OU have met with both teams carrying AP rankings into the game. While MU holds just a 2-10 mark in those instances against OU, the Tigers have been the higher-ranked team (which they are this Saturday) only three times (going 1-2 in those affairs). Here's a look at those contests...

- – Mizzou is 3-1 in 2007 when playing against ranked opponents, adding last week's win against #2-ranked Kansas to its list of wins along with with a 41-10 win over #22 Texas Tech (Oct. 20th in Columbia) and a 41-6 win over then-#25 Nebraska (Oct. 6th in Columbia). MU's sole loss against a ranked team this season remains its only loss to date a 41-31 defeat at #6 Oklahoma (Oct. 13th)...

- – Mizzou is 13-7 under Head Coach Gary Pinkel when playing as a ranked team, including 8-1 in 2007, 3-2 in 2006, 1-1 in 2004 and 1-3 in 2003...

TIGERS' SPOT IN BCS POLL IS HIGHEST IN PROGRAM HISTORY

The BCS standings (www.bcsfootball.org) this week reflect the Mizzou Tigers at #1, climbing from #16 after the initial rankings six weeks ago, and up 3 from last week's #4 spot.

This week is the 75th week a set of rankings has been compiled, and Mizzou's showing at #1 is the highest any Tiger team has stood in the rankings (which began in 1998), and only the 14th time overall that MU has made the BCS rankings.

Here's a quick look at those times...

TIGERS HAVE WON SIX-STRAIGHT SINCE OU LOSS

Mizzou suffered its only defeat of the season to this Saturday's Big 12 title game opponent, Oklahoma, back on Oct. 13th in Norman. Many Tiger players credit that game, though, which MU led 24-23 in the 4th quarter, as a turning point in the season, saying that they knew after that game they could compete with anyone if they played their best.

Since then, the Tigers have been playing very good football, as they've won 6 straight games heading into the rematch with OU. Here's a quick look at some stat breakdowns that show advantages MU has owned in the 6-game streak...

Some individual standouts during the 6-game string include QB Chase Daniel, who is completing 72.4% of his passes in the win streak (163-of-225), and has thrown for 1,878 yards with 17 TDs and just 3 INTs for a QB rating of 164.8.

FS William Moore, has surged to the top of the Big 12 rankings in interceptions and played his way into all-league honors contention during the string, as he's recorded 5 INTs in MU's 6-game streak.

Another standout has been Mr. all-everything Jeremy Maclin, who has been MU's leading receiver in the 6 games, catching 39 passes for 595 yards and 6 TDs, averaging 99.2 yds. per game.

MIZZOU ONLY TEAM TO SCORE 30 PTS. EACH GAME IN 2007

Another testament to the consistency with which Chase Daniel and the Tiger offensive attack is playing this year – a check of the national results in 2007 shows that Mizzou is the only school in the country to score at least 30 points in every game.

MU also has the most 30-point games in the nation, doing it 12 times so far. Here's a quick look at teams with the most 30-point games so far (through games of Nov. 24th)...

DANIEL IN THE CHASE FOR HEISMAN CONSIDERATION

Junior QB Chase Daniel continues to make a claim to top signal caller status in the Big 12 Conference, and for top national honors as well with his stellar play. Among those national honors that his name keeps popping up for around the country is the mother of them all – the Heisman Trophy.

Daniel received a letter from the Heisman Trust three weeks ago, indicating that he is being followed by many of the voters, and thus, is in a position to potentially garner an invite to the Heisman ceremony in New York City the weekend of Dec. 8. Finalists will be announced Dec. 5.

The Tiger signal caller, who has already been named a finalist for the O'Brien Award, made the most of his national television appearance last Saturday in leading MU to a 36-28 win over #2-ranked and previously unbeaten Kansas. The impression he left on the nation had to be a favorable one, as he surgically dissected the Jayhawks, completing 40-of-49 passes for 361 yards and 3 TDs, with zero INTs.

Daniel has been stellar during crunch time, as his QB rating in the 4th quarter of Big 12 games in 2007 is 181.59 – he's 46-of-55 passing for 508 yards, with 4 TDs and 1 INT.

Daniel became the 1st repeat winner of the Big 12 Conference Offensive Player of the Week this season, when he won the Big 12 award for his 421-yard, 5-TD performance at Colorado in which he completed 26-of-44 passes and had a QB rating of 172.42. The yardage marked a career high for Daniel, with the TD passes tying his own school single-game record he'd established twice previously as he led MU to a 55-10 win in Boulder.

After being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week Monday for his performance in the Kansas game, Daniel has now won the weekly Big 12 award three times this season, and 5 times overall. He won the award earlier this year for his performance in leading Mizzou to a 41-6 win over #25 Nebraska on Oct. 6th, when he passed for a then-career-best 401 yards and had a career-high 473 yards of total offense in all as the Tigers rolled up 606 yards on the night. He also won during the 2006 season for his efforts against Murray State and Kansas.

Daniel enters Saturday's game against Oklahoma ranked among the best in the Big 12 and the NCAA in several categories, and he has the Tigers 11-1 and sitting 1st in the latest BCS poll (MU's highest-ever showing). He has also led MU to consecutive 8-win regular seasons for just the 2nd time in school history (1941-42).

TIGERS CLAIM NORTH DIVISION TITLE BY KNOCKING KANSAS FROM UNBEATEN

The Missouri Tigers improved to 11-1 last Saturday by jumping on top of previously unbeaten and 2nd-ranked Kansas, and then held off a late KU surge to claim the Big 12 Conference North Division title with a 36-28 win in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium.

The Tigers, who came into the game ranked 4th in the BCS standings, won its first conference title of any kind since 1969 by jumping out to leads of 7-0 (1st quarter), 14-0 (halftime) and 21-0 (3rd quarter), before KU was able to make a run. But the closest the Jayhawks would get was 6 points in the final minutes, and their last-ditch shot at a score was snuffed out deep in their territory on a QB sack for a safety with :12 seconds left by NOSE Lorenzo Williams to account for the final score.

Chase Daniel added to his Heisman-worthy resume as he completed 40-of-49 passes on the night for 361 yards and 3 TDs. His precision passing systematically picked apart a Jayhawk defense that came into the game ranked 8th in the NCAA in total defense, allowing an average of 300.00 total yards per game. MU outgained the Jayhawks on the evening, 519-to-391.

Daniel's most dangerous target on the night was WR Danario Alexander, who hauled in 8 receptions for a career-best 117 yards and 1 TD. Alexander had caught a total of 4 passes for 25 yards combined in the previous 2 games, but he came up big early and often on the night.

As good as MU's offense was, its defense maybe turned the most heads, especially for the opening 30 minutes, as it pitched its first shutout against a BCS opponent since 2005 against Baylor, as the Tigers led 14-0 at halftime. Mizzou allowed only 139 Jayhawk yards of total offense in the opening half, limiting KU to just 1-of-6 on 3rd downs in the process.

In all, the Tiger defense stymied the KU rushing attack, holding them to a season-low 42 yards rushing on the night – far below their per-game average of 210.64 coming into the game, which had ranked 15th nationally coming in.

The Tigers also turned the tables on Kansas in the turnover battle, as MU nabbed a pair of interceptions on QB Todd Reesing, who hadn't thrown an interception since the Truman administration. Both picks led to touchdowns for the Tiger offense that helped the Tigers build a 21-0 lead midway through the 3rd quarter.

TB Tony Temple, playing in his hometown of Kansas City, ran like a man possessed, hitting holes, breaking tackles, making something out of nothing, and running over and through people, as he finished with 98 yards on 22 carries (4.5 avg.).

Todd Reesing's 5-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Henry with 2:03 to go drew the Jayhawks within six points and after Mizzou milked all but 17 seconds off the clock before punting deep into KU territory, Lorenzo Williams put the finishing touches on it for Mizzou, sacking Reesing in the end zone for a safety with 12 seconds left.

Kansas came into the game second nationally averaging almost 46 points a game, but fell behind 21-0 before Reesing finally got the Jayhawks into the end zone. Scott Webb missed two field goals in the second quarter for the Jayhawks, who had been an even bigger surprise than Missouri up to this point and were gunning for what would have been their first national championship as well.

MU's Alexander caught eight passes for 117 yards, including a 16-yard gain on third-and-14 with 6:46 to play after Reesing's touchdown pass to Dexton Fields pulled Kansas to 31-21.

A moment later, Jeff Wolfert kicked his second field goal, a 43-yarder, for a 34-21 lead with 3:31 to go.

The Tigers had only one first down on their first three possessions but finally broke through with a 78-yard touchdown drive once Daniel found his groove.

Reesing seemed to find his touch after a poor first quarter when he hit Kerry Meier for a 39-yard gain on the first play of the second quarter. That was his school-record 213th straight pass without an interception. But on the next play, safety William Moore stepped in front of Fields at the 2 and made the pick. It was his seventh interception of the season, tying the Missouri record of NFL Hall of Fame defensive back Roger Wehrli, and gave all the momentum right back to the Tigers.

The Jayhawks, one of the nation's least-penalized teams, made another big mistake, a defensive holding after stopping Missouri on third-and-12 from the 40.

Given new life, Daniel found Alexander for 20 yards and then on third-and-goal from the Tommy Saunders had eight catches for 82 yards for Missouri and Fields led the Jayhawks with eight receptions for 116 yards.

MACLIN BREAKS NCAA FRESHMAN ALL-PURPOSE YARDAGE MARK

Freshman wide receiver/return man extraordinaire Jeremy Maclin was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week, for his record-breaking efforts in MUs 49-32 win in Manhattan, Kan., over Kansas State two games ago.

Maclin, who is proving himself to be the most dynamic and versatile freshman in the nation, amassed an MU single-game record of 360 all-purpose yards, breaking the NCAA freshman single-season all-purpose yardage record in the process. The old record was 2,026 by Terrell Willis of Rutgers in 1993, and after a 200-yard night last Saturday against Kansas, Maclin now has 2,509 in 12 games.

Maclin broke the NCAA record on an historic play, as he took a kickoff return 99 yards for a touchdown in the 1st quarter, for Mizzou's first kickoff return for a score since 1982. Mizzou had gone 287 games and 976 kickoff returns between its last touchdown, both of which were nation-long streaks.

Maclin, who leads the Big 12 Conference and ranks 2nd in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (209.1 ypg), is the only player in the nation to have touchdowns via receiving (9 TDs), rushing (4), punt return (2) and kickoff return (1). He also became only the third Tiger in history to have a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in a season joining former greats Roger Wehrli (1968) and John Moseley (1973).

After his big day at Kansas State, which also included nine receptions for 143 yards and two touchdowns, Maclin had a career-best 10 catches last Saturday in the win over Kansas, for 69 yards. He also had a punt return for 43 yards that he was one man away from taking the distance, and he rushed 4 times for 22 yards.

Maclin now leads MU with 954 receiving yards on the season. He ranks 2nd in the Big 12 (15th nationally) in punt returns (13.59 avg.), 6th in the league in receiving yards (79.50 ypg), 9th in scoring (8.00 ppg) and 10th in kickoff returns (24.28 avg.).

MORE ON THE J-MAC ATTACK

One could make a pretty good argument that Maclin has been the biggest impact freshman in the country this season, at least in terms of being key to his team's success.

He's made big play after big play in key situations for the Tigers, and has no doubt been a big reason why MU is 11-1 and ranked #1 in the nation for only the 2nd time ever. Before being held out of the endzone against Kansas last Saturday, Maclin had scored a TD in 6 straight games, and has at least 1 score in 9-of-12 outings, and has 6 multiple-TD games thus far.

In addition to already having broken the NCAA freshman single-season all-purpose yardage record, the Kirkwood, Mo., native is also on pace to break the NCAA freshman per-game all-purpose yardage mark of 184.8, established in 1991 by Marshall Faulk of San Diego State.

With his 267-yard day against Texas A&M, Maclin broke the Big 12 Conference freshman season record of 1,937 set by Adrian Peterson of Oklahoma in 2004.

RUCKER LEADS ALL OF NCAA'S TIGHT ENDS IN RECEPTIONS PER GAME, NAMED MACKEY FINALIST

All-American candidate TE Martin Rucker bypassed the NFL draft after his junior year, in order to come back to help lead his team to great things in 2007, and also to help improve his draft status for next year. Through 11 games, his decision appears to have been an extremely good one, as Rucker has played like a man among children, as he leads all of the nation's tight ends with his per-game averages of 6.36 receptions and his yardage average of 63.55 yards (70 receptions, 699 yards, 7 TDs in all) is 5th-best nationally among tight ends. He also ranks 24th nationally – among all position players – with his 6.36 catches per game.

Rucker was named on Monday one of three finalists for the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to the nation's top tight end. The winner will be announced on Dec. 6th as part of the Home Depot ESPN College Football Awards Show.

Rucker has been a beast every time he's touched the ball – we're hyperbolizing a little here, probably, but it's hard to remember a time when he was brought down by any less than 3 people on a play when he's touched the ball this season.

And when teams choose to focus on limiting his touches, as Kansas State did recently, that attention opens things up for others, like a Jeremy Maclin, who had 9 catches for 143 yards and 2 TDs. Rucker was held to 4 catches for 28 yards in Manhattan, but still played a key role in MU's big win, as he caught a pair of TD passes for his 1st multiple-score game since his freshman season at Baylor. Rucker had 5 catches for 40 yards and a huge TD last time out against Kansas, as the Tigers defeated KU, 36-28. His TD catch opened scoring on the night, and came on a 4th-and-goal from the 1-yardline.

The co-captain was a focal point of the offensive attack that rolled up 606 yards against Nebraska, as Rucker caught 9 passes for 109 yards and 1 TD against the Huskers. He followed with a 6-catch, 35-yard outing at Oklahoma where he caught a TD pass in the 4th quarter. Rucker is had a 6-catch night at Colorado that saw him break the MU single-season record for most receptions by a tight end (old mark was 54 by Chase Coffman in 2006), and he had a 6-catch, 54-yard day against Texas A&M.

Rucker, who was voted a team co-captain by his teammates this off-season, caught 53 passes for 511 yards and 5 TDs a year ago. He entered his senior season (after bypassing the NFL Draft) already holding the MU career records for TEs in receptions (119) and yardage (1,341).

With updated career numbers of 194 receptions for 2,080 yards and 18 TDs, Rucker is now just the 3rd Tiger ever (1st tight end) to reach 2,000 yards. He also stands just 7 catches shy of breaking the MU career receptions record of 200 held by former standout WR Justin Gage (200 from 1999-2002).

Rucker is the younger brother of Mike Rucker, who was an All-American defensive lineman at Nebraska and is a standout with the NFL's Carolina Panthers. His father, Martin Sr., also has a very public job, as he is a State Representative in the Missouri House of Representatives, for District 29.

SPIEKER, RUCKER SET TO TIE CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD SATURDAY

There's something to be said for longevity, and that trait will be on display Saturday night, as senior center Adam Spieker and senior tight end Martin Rucker are set to break a school record for most consecutive starts, when they take the field for their 49th straight start each.

Each has started every game of his Tiger career, and will tie the MU record of 48 straight starts by former QB Brad Smith.

WILLY MO LEADS BIG 12 IN INTERCEPTIONS, TAKING OVER FOR INJURED PIG

When Mizzou lost its biggest playmaker, SS Pig Brown, to a season-ending injury in game #8 against Iowa State (ruptured Achilles'), with the loss went a player who was among the best in the Big 12 Conference at his position, and someone who was on his way to all-Big 12, and possibly even some all-America recognition.

Brown's running mate in the secondary, FS William Moore (a.k.a. Willy Mo), had been having a good year up to that point, but since Brown has been out, Moore has turned his game up to 11 on the Spinal Tap volume knob, and he's playing his way into potential all-conference honors, as well.

Moore has notched an INT in each of the 4 games without Brown, raising his season total to 7, which is most in the Big 12, and 3rd nationally. The total is tied for the most on the MU single-season record chart, along with former all-American, and 2007 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, Roger Wehrli, who had set the record in 1968.

Each of those INTs has led to points for the Tigers, with MU getting a FG at Colorado, followed by a TD against Texas A&M, Kansas State and again last week vs. Kansas. Moore's play at KSU set the tone right away, as he jumped a pass in the flat by KSU's Josh Freeman on just the 3rd play of the game, and returned it 22 yards to the K-State 15 yardline to set up the Tigers to take a quick 7-0 lead.

His play last week vs. Kansas was equally huge, as the Tigers were leading 7-0, and with KU driving, he leaped up to snag a pass inside the MU 5-yardline, made the catch with his momentum carrying him into the endzone. MU took over at its 2-yardline, and the offense responded with a 98-yard TD drive to go up 14-0. The INT broke a string of 213 consecutive passes without a pick by KU QB Todd Reesing.

Against the Wildcats, Moore had 8 tackles in all, including 1 QB sack, and he also had a huge stop of Freeman at the Tiger 1-yardline which forced a 4th down and a KSU field goal attempt. The week before, against Texas A&M, Moore had 6 tackles, including 1 TFL, and added 1 PBU to go with his INT.

Prior to that, he had his best outing of the year at Colorado, in what was the defense's 1st game without Brown. At CU, Moore had 11 tackles, including a huge stop on a 3rd-and-short try early in the game that forced a Buffalo punt and swung momentum MU's way, in addition to forcing a fumble, grabbing an interception and notching 1 QBH.

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS IMPRESSIVE DURING CONFERENCE PLAY

Mizzou's defense has gotten much better, and much more consistent throughout the season as several young players and first-year starters have grown into their roles.

Here's a look at at where Mizzou ranked (and what it was allowing per game) in its first 4 games (all non-conference games), versus where it stands in Big 12-play (last 8 games only)...

IN CASE YOU HAVEN'T HEARD ABOUT CHASE DANIEL, LET US TELL YOU SOME STUFF

There can't be many QBs in the nation playing at a higher level than Tiger signal caller Chase Daniel, who currently ranks 4th in the nation in total offense (350.57 ypg) and 8th nationally in passing efficiency (155.92 rating).

And he hasn't been putting up numbers against the sisters of the poor, exactly. Here's a look at Daniel's numbers this season against his 9 BCS-conference opponents this year...

Daniel had a scintillating night at Ole Miss, where he tied his own MU single-game record by tossing 5 TDs (all coming in a span of just 16:07), as he helped lead the Tigers to an important 38-25 road win. In the 2nd quarter alone at Ole Miss, Daniel was 12-of-17 passing for 177 yards and 4 TDs, good for a stout QB rating of 235.7.

He's three times been named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week in 2007, for a 401-yard, 2-TD, 473-yard total offense night in a 41-6 win over #25 Nebraska, for a career-best 421-yard passing night, including a record-tying 5 TDs, at Colorado, in leading MU to a 55-10 road win, and just this week, for a 361-yard, 3 TD passing night (on 40-of-49 passes with 0 INTs) against Kansas in leading the Tigers to the #1 spot in the land.

Last season, Daniel smashed numerous season records that former QB great Brad Smith and others held, including passing yards (3,527 – almost 1,100 more than the old record of 2,436 by Jeff Handy in 1992), passing TDs (28), TDs responsible for (32) and total offense (3,906). Daniel ranked 5th in the NCAA in total offense with his per-game average of 300.5 ypg – that was the highest a Tiger has rated in total offense nationally since Bob Steuber finished 3rd in 1942.

Daniel, in his first year as a starter in 2006, led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and an 8-win season for only the 10th time in school history. He enters Saturday's game against Oklahoma with a career record of 19-6 as a starter at Mizzou.

PINKEL STANDS 3RD ON ALLTIME MU COACHING WINS LIST

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 7th season at MU and touts a career record of 121-73-3 (62.2%).

Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 39-22 over the past 5 seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005 and 2006, has a 7-year record in Columbia of 48-36 (57.1%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has won 20 of his last 26 games overall.

MU's 36-28 win last time out versus Kansas gave Pinkel his 48th MU win, which ranks him 3rd on the coaching wins list at MU. Here's a quick look at the top 6...

MISSOURI COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Gary Pinkel	48	7 (2001-Present)	48-36	.571	3

Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935.

The 2006 season got off to an historic start for Pinkel and his Tigers, as he led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and its first 7-1 start to a season since 1969. He was awarded with a new five-year contract late in the year that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. The new deal trumped the old contract that was set to expire after the 2008 campaign.

Pinkel has led MU to 3 bowl games, and when his Tigers reach a 4th in 2007, he will join Faurot (4 bowls), Devine (6 bowls), and Powers (5 bowls) as the only coaches to guide MU to 4 bowl games. After beating Nebraska in 2007 (41-6) for the 3rd time in 5 years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Onofrio to defeat NU three times.

Pinkel has guided Mizzou to 4 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006, 10-1 in 2007), with those representing 4 of MU's 6 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season.

WOLFERT CONTINUES ON PERFECTION IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Junior PK Jeff Wolfert continued his perfect run through conference play, as he was a perfect 6-of-6 in combined kicks last Saturday against Kansas (2-of-2 FGs, 4-of-4 PATs), with his pair of field goals both of the clutch nature. They both came from 43 yards out and in the 4th quarter as MU was looking to hold off a hard-charging Jayhawk rally.

Wolfert is still perfect in Big 12 games this season in 53 combined kicks (41-of-41 PATs and 12-of-12FGs). At the risk of throwing a big jinx on the proceedings, Wolfert has never missed a kick of any kind in Big 12 play in his career – Wolfert has now made 87 consecutive combined kicks in Big 12 play in his career, spanning 2006 and 2007. He went a perfect 34-of-34 in 2006 (23-of-23 PATs and 11-of-11 FGs), to go with the perfect 53-of-53 so far in 2007.

One of the great “feel-good” stories in college football last season had to be Wolfert, who became one of the most reliable kickers in the nation in 2006, after kicking in just 1 game in his entire life (in high school, at that) prior to winning the starting job in fall camp.

Wolfert moved his point total for the 2007 season to 103 at Kansas State, and that broke his own single-season kick-scoring record of 99, set in 13 games a year ago.

Just how impressive was Wolfert a year ago? Impressive enough to be named last year as a semifinalist to the Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top kicker. Evidently, numbers such as 18-of-20 on field goals and 45-of-45 on PATs will earn you that kind of recognition.

All Wolfert did was break MU records for most points scored in a season by a kicker (99), most FGs made (18), most PATs made (45), most consecutive PATs made in a season (45), highest percentage of FGs (.900) and PATs (1.000) made, and longest field goal made on the road (54 at Nebraska). He made an incredible 63-of-65 combined kicks in all, on the season, with his only misses coming on his very 1st collegiate FG try – a 41-yarder in the season opener versus Murray State – and on a 36-yard FG try in the 4th quarter of game #2 versus Ole Miss.

After that last miss, Wolfert made every one of his final 53 combined kicks (15 FGs, 38 PATs) to close the year, a streak that was broken in the '07 opener against Illinois when he missed a FG try from 49 yards out. He's got a current string going now of 55 straight combined kicks made in 2007 (12 FGs, 43 PATs), since his last miss on a FG attempt vs. Illinois State.

Wolfert originally came to Mizzou as a diver on the men's swimming and diving team, but the former high school kicker gave up diving into water for jumping into the fire of placekicking. Wolfert was a soccer player in high school, and wanted to give kicking a try as a senior. He kicked two extra points in his first game that year, but then missed the rest of the year after breaking his hip on a kickoff in that same game.

After the injury, Wolfert decided to focus on diving collegiately, and he was a standout freshman diver on the Mizzou men's swimming and diving team during the 2004-05 school year. He produced a top-five performance on the platform and top-10 finishes on the 1 and 3-meter boards at the 2005 NCAA Zone Diving Championships. He also finished 4th in the 1-meter board, 5th on the 3-meter board and 6th on the platform at the Big 12 Championships.

But his dreams to kick a football never died, and he gave up his Mizzou swimming scholarship money and joined the football team as a walk-on for the 2005 season. He did not play in 2005, and figured that he would give kicking one more try in 2006, and if it didn't pan out, he'd return to the sport of diving, where a scholarship was waiting for him.

All of a sudden, last fall, Wolfert was very consistent kicking in scrimmages, and was named the starting placekicker for the season opener – despite his lack of experience, and the fact that

TONY THE TIGER RUNS GRRRRREATT VS. KANSAS

Senior TB Tony Temple entered the 2007 season as the Big 12's leading returning rusher, as he turned in a 1,063-yard season a year ago, which ranked as the 8th-best total in MU single-season history.

Expectations were high for Temple, especially after finishing the 2006 season on a huge upswing, as he gashed Oregon State to the tune of an MU bowl-record 194 rushing yards and 2 TDs in the 2006 Brut Sun Bowl. He was actually selected the game's MVP prior to having it taken away as the Beavers staged a last-second come-from-behind drive to win the game.

The Kansas City, Mo., native had a rough debut in 2007, as he was held to just 33 yards on 17 carries against Illinois (1.9 avg.), while the Tigers were limited to just 70 yards net rushing on the day.

Temple was bound and determined to break out in week #2 at Ole Miss, and he did just that, as he ran for 123 yards on 17 carries, good for a salty per-carry average of 7.2 yards. He had runs of 33 yards and 26 yards to help the cause for an MU offense that rolled up 559 yards on the night.

He followed by just missing the 100-yard mark in game #3 against Western Michigan, carrying 16 times for 96 yards and 2 TDs (his 1st rushing TDs of the season), and then went for 101 yards on 18 carries (1 TD) last time out against Illinois State. Temple also caught his 1st career TD pass, on an 11-yard swing play from QB Chase Daniel that he took in for the score.

After missing the majority of 3 games due to an ankle and leg injury, Temple showed that he's healthy now, as he rushed for a season-best 141 yards and had a 44-yard TD against Texas A&M two games ago. He did so playing with a heavy heart, as his grandmother passed away the Monday of that week in his hometown of Kansas City, Mo.

Temple had a big night last Saturday in Kansas City, as he carried 22 times for 98 yards against Kansas, and did some of his most impressive running of the year overall in the game.

194	2	20	9.7	Oregon State (2006)
168	0	22	7.6	at New Mexico (2006)
141	1	22	6.4	Texas A&M (2007)
123	0	17	7.2	at Ole Miss (2007)
119	0	15	7.9	Murray State (2006)
101	1	18	5.6	Illinois State (2007)
100	0	17	5.9	Baylor (2005)

Called the catalyst to the Tiger offense by QB Chase Daniel, Temple played in only 1 game as a true freshman in 2004 before being hurt after carrying the ball 6 times in game #8 at Nebraska. An appeal for reinstatement of another year could be filed by Mizzou with the NCAA following the 2007 season.

TIGERS CAN BE 1ST MU TEAM IN HISTORY TO WIN 12 GAMES

Mizzou will take to the field Saturday with a chance at making history. With an 11-1 record entering the game, the Tigers will look to become the 1st team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

The current bunch is already the only Tiger team to ever win 11 games on the field in a season. The only other time MU has won 10 games was back in 1960, when the Tigers had a 10-1 record on the field, but a perfect 11-0 mark in the record books, after a regular-season finale loss to rival Kansas was later forfeited by KU for using an ineligible player.

That 1960 team won 9 regular season games, then won its bowl game (1961 Orange) for 10 on-field wins, and 11 wins in the record books.

Mizzou has now won at least 8 regular-season games in consecutive years for only the 2nd time in school history — 1941 and 1942 was the only other such occasion for the program, now in its 117th season of competition.

Head Coach Gary Pinkel joins MU legends Don Faurot and Dan Devine as the only Mizzou coaches to achieve multiple 8-win regular seasons. Faurot won 8 regular season games 4 times, while Devine did it twice. Pinkel's teams have now done it 3 times (2003, 2006, 2007).

MIZZOU IN THE MIDST OF ITS WINNINGEST DECADE SINCE THE 1960S

A fun fact to ponder is that in the decade of the 2000s, Mizzou has upped its record to 51-44 (.536), and that is the school's best winning percentage in a decade since the 1960s, when MU enjoyed its most successful era ever.

From 1960-69, the Tigers went 77-22-6 (.762), and were the only school in the nation to never lose more than 3 games in any season during that decade. Under Hall of Fame Coach Dan Devine, the Tigers finished the season ranked in 8 of those 10 years, including 4 in the top-10 (5th in 1960; 6th in 1965; 9th in 1968; 6th in 1969).

Additionally, the 51 wins MU currently has posted this decade (8 seasons), has already surpassed the 10-year win totals for the school in both the 1980s (45) and 1990s (43).

In his seventh year directing the Missouri Tiger football program, Head Coach Gary Pinkel has built a solid foundation that has Mizzou pointed toward an exciting future.

While Pinkel himself would say that the program is still a work in progress, numerous accomplishments can be pointed to that already tell a nice success story. Mizzou enjoyed an exciting 2006 campaign that saw them win eight regular-season games for just the 10th time in school history, and the Tigers' appearance in the Brut Sun Bowl marked MU's third bowl game in the past four seasons – the first time in 25 years that Mizzou has had three bowls in four years.

Mizzou caught the attention of the national football community in 2006, as the Tigers got out to a scintillating 6-0 start, the first time since 1973 that MU had won its first six games. Mizzou was ranked for much of the season and had its name mentioned on the cover of Sports Illustrated and had its program prominently featured in other national publications such as USA Today and The New York Times. MU has won 11 regular-season games for the 1st time ever in 2007 (and stands 11-1), and currently ranked #1 in the latest BCS poll (MU's highest-ever).

His success has led to an increased commitment to his program from the University, as Pinkel was awarded with a new five-year contract last November that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. With winning seasons in 2003 (8-5), 2005 (7-5) and 2006 (8-5), Pinkel is the first MU coach to achieve three winning seasons since Warren Powers.

Pinkel and his program successfully built on the momentum created from a thrilling 38-31 win over South Carolina in the 2005 Independence Bowl that saw his Tigers overcome a 21-point deficit. The landmark win marked the largest come-from-behind win in school history, and it gave Mizzou only its second bowl win in the last 24 years.

In the last five seasons, Pinkel has led the Tigers to a mark of 39-22 overall.

Pinkel has led Mizzou to three bowl games, and that puts him in select company, as he joins Don Faurot, Dan Devine, Al Onforio, and Warren Powers as the only coaches to guide MU to three bowl games. After beating Nebraska (41-6 on Oct. 6th) for the 3rd time in 5 years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Al Onforio to defeat the Huskers three times.

His seven-year Mizzou record stands at 48-36, and in 17 years, his record is 121-73-3 overall. The win over Nebraska in 2005 was the 100th of his head coaching career. His 48 wins at Mizzou is now 3rd-most on the school's career coaching victories list.

After taking over a program that had fallen on hard times in 2001, Pinkel had increased
