TECH WRAPS UP BIG 12 PLAY ON SATURDAY AT NO. 16 OKLAHOMA

Texas Tech will conclude the Big 12 portion of its 2010 schedule on Saturday afternoon when the Red Raiders pay the No. 16 Oklahoma Sooners a visit at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman. The Red Raiders stand at 5-4 overall and at 3-4 in Big 12 play after Saturday's 24-17 upset win over No. 14 Missouri. Texas Tech rebounded from a 14-3 early deficit by pitching a second-half shutout against a highly potent Missouri offense and scored 21 unanswered points to avoid its third home loss of the season. Saturday's game will be televised on a regional basis on ABC Sports.

RED RAIDERS STOP NO. 14 MISSOURI 24-17

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Taylor Potts came off the bench and threw for 188 yards and three touchdowns to lead Texas Tech over No. 14 Missouri 24-17 on Saturday. Potts didn't start for the first time this season but came in late in the first half and threw TD passes of 8, 5 and 16 yards on three straight possessions by the Red Raiders (5-4, 3-4 Big 12) spanning the halves to wipe out a 17-3 deficit. Missouri disappeared for two quarters, but Zaviar Gooden's interception at the Tigers 2 kept the game close. Still, the Tigers failed to move the ball into Red Raiders territory. Blaine Gabbert completed 12-of-30 passes for 95 yards for the Tigers (7-2, 3-2), who have lost two straight and will have a tough time making up the difference on first-place Nebraska. Missouri lost to the Cornhuskers last week. Red Raiders coach Tommy Tuberville has said all season he wanted his team to get 150 rushing yards a game. Texas Tech got 198 yards on 51 carries, with Baron Batch going for 134. Missouri had chances with less than five minutes remaining in the game. Gabbert threw two passes into the end zone from Texas Tech's 34 that appeared catchable. But neither Wes Kemp nor Jerrell Jackson could pull the ball in for a tying score. Potts watched from the sideline as backup quarterback Steven Sheffield started. Sheffield completed 11-of-20 passes for 99 yards. When Potts went in the Red Raiders offense began to click at the same time that Missouri's began to struggle. After the first quarter, Gabbert's passes lacked accuracy. He completed only three in the third quarter for 15 yards. Sheffield, who started his first game of the season, struggled to put drives together. On five of the seven drives with Sheffield taking snaps the Red Raiders punted. They got a field goal to trail 14-3 and lost a fumble on the other two possessions. With about five minutes left in the half Tuberville pulled Sheffield and put in Potts, who promptly led Texas Tech on 16-play drive, capping it with an 8-yard touchdown pass to Detron Lewis.

IS NOW THE

HIGH PLAINS COMMANDER

HEAD COACH TOMMY TUBERVILLE

Seeking the chance to take the Big 12's third winningest program to new heights, Tommy Tuberville was named the 14th head coach in school history on January 10, 2010.

Tuberville inherits a program that has been bowl eligible for a Big 12 record 16 consecutive seasons and has won 29 games in the last three seasons. His SEC coaching pedigree suggests that his impact on the Red Raider program will be substantial and his first test will arrive on Sept. 5 when Texas Tech opens the 2010 season at home against the SMU Mustangs.

In 10 seasons at Auburn, Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalist for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Since 2000, the program is tied for the best conference record among SEC teams with a mark of 47-17 (.734). Tuberville has directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville built an Auburn program that excelled both on and off the field. Players flourished under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn earned 36 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 26 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 57 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Thirty-two players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round. Since 2004, 26 Auburn players have been drafted, including 22 in the last five drafts. Of those 22 selections since 2005, almost half have been selected in the first two rounds; five first-round selections and five second-round picks.

Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rules committee. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure, and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Tuberville's community service reached well beyond the local, state and national level in May 2008, when he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

In addition, Tuberville continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Auburn's football team. Auburn football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly. The last two summers, the football team spent a day working at Story Book Farm which is a non-profit organization that provides therapeutic horseback riding for children suffering from disabilities, chronic illnesses or those who have suffered a loss.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker and Troy Allen.

TEXAS TECH AND OKLAHOMA

Texas Tech and Oklahoma will be meeting for the 18th time on Saturday afternoon at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman. The two teams have played annually since becoming members of the Big 12 Conference in 1996. Prior to becoming conference foes, Texas Tech and OU tangled three previous times including the first match-up in 1992 (a 34-9 Sooner win in Lubbock).

TECH-OKLAHOMA SERIES NOTES

- Oklahoma leads the all-time series against Texas Tech with a 12-5 record. The Sooners are 7-1 against the Red Raiders at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Tech's lone win in Norman came in 1996 when the Red Raiders posted a 22-12 victory over the Sooners.
- Despite trailing in the all-time series, Texas Tech has won two of the last three games against the Sooners, including a 41-13 victory in the 2009 home regular-season finale at Jones AT&T Stadium.
- Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops is 7-4 all-time against Texas Tech while Tommy Tuberville will be facing the Sooners for the first time in his coaching career.
- The Sooners dominated the last meeting in Norman as they handed Tech its first loss of the season and ended the national championship hopes for the Red Raiders. In that game, Oklahoma tallied 625 yards of total offense with 299 of those yards coming on the ground. OU held a potent Tech offense to just 406 total yards.
- The last three meetings between the two teams have resulted in a combined 800-plus yards of total offense along with 201 total points.
- Saturday's game at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium will be the first day game played between the two teams in Norman since 2004 (11:40 a.m. kickoff on FSN). The last two games were played in the evening.

LAST TIME AGAINST OKLAHOMA

LUBBOCK (AP) - Taylor Potts threw for 388 yards and two touchdowns as Texas Tech beat Oklahoma 41-13 on Saturday for its most lopsided win ever over the Sooners. Baron Batch ran for 136 yards and two scores for the Red Raiders (7-4, 4-3 Big 12), who became bowl eligible for the 16th straight season. Oklahoma defensive back Dominique Franks, right, reaches in for a tackle on Texas Tech running back Eric Stephens, right, during the fourth quarter of an NCAA college football game in Lubbock, Texas, Saturday, Nov. 21, 2009. Texas Tech won the game 41-13. Oklahoma (6-5, 4-3) has its most losses since going 7-5 in 1999. It was just the fifth victory in 17 meetings for Texas Tech against the Sooners, and the Red Raiders had never won by more than 10 points in the series. The margin was a stunning reversal from last season, when the Sooners crushed Texas Tech 65-21 to end the Red Raiders' national championship hopes. Oklahoma hadn't lost this badly since falling to Texas 45-12 in 2005. Texas Tech's Alex Torres had his best game of the season with 11 catches for 163 yards. The victory was No. 83 for Mike Leach, surpassing predecessor Spike Dykes as the winningest coach at Texas Tech. The Sooners' pass defense came in at No. 18 in the nation (178 yards per game) but couldn't hold back Texas Tech's passing offense, ranked second in the country. Brandon Sharpe helped keep the Oklahoma offense out of rhythm. He entered the game second in the nation in sacks and added 2 1/2 more Saturday. Landry Jones was 18 of 35 for 262 yards for the Sooners.

TECH PUTS A WRAP ON BIG 12 PLAY

Texas Tech will put a wrap on the 2010 conference season on Saturday afternoon against Oklahoma. Texas Tech stands at 3-4 in Big 12 play and will be looking to move to .500 with a win over the Sooners. Tech has not finished under .500 in Big 12 play since going 3-5 in 2000. Saturday's game (Nov. 13) will be the earliest date that Tech has concluded Big 12 play since the league began play in 1996. Texas Tech played its first Big 12 game of the season against Texas back on Sept. 18 and has played eight consecutive league games. The Red Raiders close out the regular-season with home non-conference games against Weber State and Houston.

LOOKING FOR NO. 6

Texas Tech will be in search of its sixth win of the season on Saturday and if they get it - that will make the Red Raiders bowl eligible. Texas Tech is currently riding a 16-year streak of being bowl eligible which is the longest active streak in the Big 12 Conference. The Red Raiders will also be looking to secure their 11th consecutive bowl bid, a streak that began with an appearance in the galleryfurniture.com Bowl back in 2000.

STILL TWO LEFT TO GO

Texas Tech may be 5-4 overall but the Red Raiders still have two non-conference games left on the 2010 schedule. Texas Tech has played five Big 12 games thus far which is the most of any Big 12 Conference school. The Red Raiders will conclude Big 12 play on Nov. 13 at Oklahoma and will close out the year with home non-conference games against Weber State (Nov. 20) and Houston on Nov. 27. The Houston game will fall on the Saturday after Thanksgiving and will be televised nationally on FSN.

SATURDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

The Missouri Tigers are the latest victim to the Saturday Night Lights at Jones AT&T Stadium. The 14th-ranked Tigers saw firsthand just how rowdy "The Jones" can be on a Saturday night and the result was a 24-17 Red Raider upset. The win over Missouri pushed Texas Tech's record to 33-8 under the light's at Jones AT&T Stadium this century.

WOUNDED WARRIOR GAME WAS A SUCCESS

Texas Tech and Utah took the national stage as the official "Wounded Warrior Project" games for 2010 and the Red Raiders took advantage with a 24-17 upset win over No. 14 Missouri. Decked out in black/camouflage uniforms, Texas Tech and Under Armour paid tribute to our military heroes and afterwards three of the Wounded Warriors were presented game balls from Coach Tuberville. Anthony Villarreal, Mike Owens and Chad Flemming walked with the team through Raider Walk and then were guests on the sideline on Saturday. The three men brought good luck to the Red Raiders and earned high praise in the locker room from the coaches and players for their personal sacrifices for our country. The jerseys worn by Texas Tech will go on auction at www.texastech.com on Monday, Nov. 8, with the winning bids awarded on Nov. 22. All proceeds from the auction will go directly to the Wounded Warrior Project.

2010 RED RAIDER FOOTBALL

THAT'S A FIRST

Saturday's win over Missouri was not only the first over the Tigers since 2002 but also marked the first time that Tech defeated Missouri and Colorado in the same season. The Tigers and Buffaloes have been nemesis' of the Red Raiders since the league began in 1996. Prior to Saturday night, Tech had never defeated Missouri and Colorado in the same season. Tech's win over the Tigers also gave Tech a final mark of 2-1 against the Big 12 North Division.

LOOK OUT

Don't look now but the stat sheet from Tech's win over Missouri will reveal something that has not been seen from a Red Raider team this century. In Tech's 24-17 win over the Tigers, the Red Raiders had more rushing attempts than pass attempts (51 rush and 50 pass). Additionally, the 51 rushing attempts were the most by a Tech offensive unit since the 1999 squad rushed 55 times in a game at Texas. The run game paid off for the Red Raiders as Tech gained 198 yards on the ground and produced its first 100-yard individual rusher of the season (Baron Batch - 134 yards).

- In all, Texas Tech tallied 101 total plays against the Tigers and that was the most for the Red Raiders since running 111 total plays at home against Iowa State in 2003.

BALL CONTROL WAS HUGE

For the first time this season, the Texas Tech defense got a breather as the Red Raider offense controlled the time of possession for the first time. The offense held the ball for just under 40 minutes (39:41) and that made a big difference for a young defensive squad that has been depleted by injuries. The defense responded as they shutout a potent Missouri offense in the second half and held the Tigers to just 62 total yards after halftime.

SIFTING THROUGH THE CARNAGE

To say the Red Raiders have been spending a lot of time in the training room, would be an understatement. After not suffering a single injury in the last 10 years (hopefully you get the joke), the injury bug has caught up with the Red Raiders in 2010. Since training camp began, 15 players have missed playing time or had their season come to an end due to injuries.

Britton Barbee (Achilles Tear - suffered in training camp)

Aundrey Barr (knee surgery on Oct. 13)

Terrance Bullitt (broken hand - missed Colorado game)

Beau Carpenter (Appendectomy - forced to redshirt)

Jared Flannel (Achilles Tear - suffered in training camp)

Will Ford (hamstring)

Jacoby Franks (broken right foot - suffered at Colorado)

Kerry Hyder (hamstring - missed Colorado game)

Harrison Jeffers (concussion - missed SMU game)

DJ Johnson (hamstring - missed MU game)

LaRon Moore (broken leg in spring training - missed four games)

Mickey Okafor (concussion - missed SMU and UNM games)

Chris Perry (broken hand - missed CU and A&M games)

Scott Smith (not an injury but was suspended after ISU game)

Alex Torres (knee surgery on Nov. 1)

Austin Zouzalik (Appendectomy - missed SMU game)

INJURY UPDATE

- Junior receiver Jacoby Franks suffered a broken right foot in Saturday's game at Colorado.

Status at Oklahoma: Out

- Sophomore receiver Alex Torres left the Texas A&M game due to a knee injury.

Status at Oklahoma: Out

- Sophomore defensive back DJ Johnson left the game at Texas A&M (hamstring) and did not return. Johnson did not play against Missouri.

Status at Oklahoma: Game Time Decision

BRIEFLY ...

- In an age where FieldTurf is extremely popular across the college landscape, Texas Tech has experienced a somewhat rare occurrence this season. All six of Texas Tech's road games this season have/will be played on natural grass (none on Field-Turf). The playing surface at Oklahoma's Memorial Stadium is a natural surface.

- Saturday's game at Oklahoma will mark Tech's third and final appearance on ABC this season. Eight of Tech's games this season have been televised and one more is on the docket when the Red Raiders host Houston on Saturday, Nov. 27. That game will be nationally televised on FSN.

- Texas Tech secured its first win over a ranked opponent this past weekend against then No. 14 Missouri. The Red Raiders have now defeated at least one ranked opponent in each of the last four years.

- Texas Tech needs one more win to become bowl eligible for the 17th consecutive year. The Weber State game can count towards bowl eligibility for the Red Raiders since Tech has never had to count an FCS win in the past.

- Texas Tech has strung together six consecutive games with 100-plus team rushing yards which is the longest streak since the 2008 season. The 2008 team tallied 100-plus rushing yards in its first 10 games of the season before being held to just 45 in a loss at Oklahoma.

- Texas Tech was forced to punt on its opening drive against Missouri for the fourth consecutive week. The Red Raider offense has only converted its opening drive into points twice this season (at New Mexico and vs. Baylor in the Cotton Bowl).

- Texas Tech scored on three consecutive possessions from the end of the second quarter and into the third on Saturday against Missouri. The last time Tech scored on three-straight possessions was against Baylor at the Cotton Bowl.

- Senior linebacker Brian Duncan did not start in Saturday's game against Missouri and that snapped a streak of 42 consecutive starts. The last time Duncan did not start a game was at Oklahoma State on Sept. 22, 2007.

- Senior running back Baron Batch (offense), freshman defensive lineman Pearlie Graves (defense) and sophomore running back Eric Stephens (special teams) were named the players of the game on Sunday by Coach Tuberville.

BATCH JOINS THE 2,000/1,000 CLUB

Senior running back Baron Batch reached the 2,000/1,000 yard club against Missouri as he has rushed for over 2,000 yards in his career and hauled in over 1,000 career receiving yards. Batch needed five receiving yards heading into the Missouri game to join the exclusive club and ended the night with 14 receiving yards.

- Batch set a new career high for carries as he ran the ball 28 times for 134 yards against the Tigers.

STEPHENS SETS ANOTHER RETURN RECORD

Sophomore Eric Stephens became the school's all-time career kickoff return yardage leader against Baylor as he picked up 37 return yards which was enough to move him into first place. Stephens edged former Red Raider great and current college football hall of fame member Donny Anderson who previously held the record of 1,309 that he set between 1963-65. He added another school record to his belt at Colorado as he surpassed Anderson's career record for kickoff returns (56) with three in the game against the Buffaloes. Against Missouri, Stephens shattered the single-season kickoff return record for yardage that he set himself during his freshman season in 2009.

- Now has a school record 1,648 career kickoff return yards.

- Owns a school record 64 career kickoff returns.

- Needs one kick return to break school's all-time record (single-season kick returns)

- Has set the single-season kickoff return record twice (as a freshman and sophomore) during his career.

SHEFFIELD STARTS/POTTS FINISHES

Senior quarterback Steven Sheffield made his first start of the season against Missouri. Prior to the Missouri game, senior quarterback Taylor Potts had made all eight previous starts. The game represented the third career start for Sheffield and his first since leading the Red Raiders to a 31-10 road win over No. 15 Nebraska on Oct. 17, 2009.

- Senior quarterback Taylor Potts entered the game with five minutes remaining in the second quarter. Potts engineered Tech's only touchdown drive of the half that covered 16 plays/82 yards and ended with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Detron Lewis. The touchdown pass pulled Tech to within one touchdown at 17-10.

- Potts led Tech to another touchdown on the first possession of the second half that ended in a 16-yard TD strike to Lyle Leong. The touchdown pass was the 50th of his career and he became one of just four QB's in Tech history to reach 50 career touchdown passes.
- Potts finished the night with 188 passing yards (19-of-28 with one interception) along with three touchdown passes.

LEONG MOVES INTO THIRD PLACE

Lyle Leong caught two touchdown passes against Missouri marking his fifth multiple touchdown performance of the season and the ninth of his career. Leong now has 28 career touchdowns, which places him third in Texas Tech career history for receiving touchdowns. His two touchdown receptions gives him 15 this season and puts him in sole possession for third place on the Tech single-season list.

- Is tied for the national lead in receiving touchdowns with 15.
- Tied for seventh nationally in scoring with an average of 10 points-per-game.

LEWIS MOVES UP ON SCHOOL CHARTS

- Needs 9 receptions to move into 5th place (career receptions)
- Needs 16 receptions to move into 4th place (career receptions)
- Needs 24 receptions to move into 3rd place (career receptions)
- Needs 232 yards to move into 7th place (career yards)
- Has at least one reception in 36 consecutive games dating back to Jan. 1, 2008, against Virginia in the Gator Bowl... also owns a streak of 23 straight games with a catch during Big 12 competition which covers the entire 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons.

TORRES LOOKING FOR 100TH RECEPTION

Alex Torres needs one reception to mark No. 100 for his career... He would become the fifth active Red Raider with 100 career receptions, joining Detron Lewis (200), Baron Batch (126), Lyle Leong (125) and Tramain Swindall (120)... If he makes a reception Saturday against Missouri (21 career games), he would become the fastest Tech receiver to reach 100 career receptions since Michael Crabtree, who needed only nine games during the 2007 season to reach 100 receptions.

- Senior receiver Lyle Leong has at least one reception in 32 consecutive games dating back to Sept. 20, 2008, against UMASS at Jones AT&T Stadium... also owns a streak of 23-straight games with a catch during Big 12 competition which covers the entire 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons.

A LOOK AT QUARTERBACK TAYLOR POTTS

Texas Tech senior quarterback Taylor Potts, recently named to the Manning Award watch list, is slowly climbing the Texas Tech record book:

- Against Missouri, he tossed the 50th touchdown pass of his career and he is now one of only four quarterbacks in school history to tally 50 career passing touchdowns.

Career Passing

- Ranks 11th nationally in total passing yards (2,576).

BIRD ANCHORING THE TECH DEFENSE

Senior linebacker Bront Bird's move to middle linebacker has paid off greatly as he leads the team with 79 total tackles. Along with his 79 tackles, he owns 4 1/2 tackles for a loss, one sack and two interceptions.

GRAVES SHINES IN HIS FIRST START

Redshirt freshman Pearlie Graves shined in his Red Raider debut on at Colorado and has given Texas Tech defensive coordinator James Willis something to smile about. Graves, a four-star recruit out of Tulsa, Okla., had spent most of the season on the scout team but earned his stripes the week prior to the CU game and then turned in a huge game against the Buffaloes. Graves finished the CU game with two quarterback sacks and another tackle for a loss to give him three tackles on the afternoon. His contributions couldn't have come at a better time in the year due to the injuries that have been sustained defensively.

- Made his first career start at Texas A&M the following week and finished the game with seven tackles, including 1.5 for a loss.

TORRES LEADS TECH AT COLORADO

For the first time this season, Red Raider fans got a glimpse at the REAL Alex Torres. Hampered by a lower back injury most of the season, Torres finally turned in one of those big games that he can be accustomed to his freshman season. Torres led the Red Raider offense with 133 receiving yards on Saturday and hauled in one touchdown pass.

- Saturday's game marked the third game of his career with 100-plus receiving yards.
- Has caught at least two passes in all 19 games of his collegiate career.
- Was the team's leading receiver in 2009 with 806 yards.

NEW JONES AT&T STADIUM RECORD - AGAIN

Texas Tech tied the Jones AT&T Stadium attendance record against Oklahoma State. The 60,454 fans in attendance equaled the school record set earlier this season against Texas on Sept. 18.

TECH ON TRACK FOR ATTENDANCE RECORD

Texas Tech is well on its way to establishing a new single-season record for home attendance. The current record is 53,625 set during the 2008 season and so far in 2010, Texas Tech is averaging 58,525 fans-per-game.

2010 Season Attendance

Sept. 5	SMU	57,582
Sept. 18	Texas	60,454
Oct. 16	Oklahoma State	60,454
Nov. 6	Missouri	55,667
Total		234,157

2010 RED RAIDER FOOTBALL

• Additionally, Texas Tech has played in front of 45,000 fans at home for 34 consecutive home dates (school record).

SECONDARY SURPASSES 2009 TOTAL

The Texas Tech secondary has been opportunistic in the first nine games of the 2010 season as the group has racked up 11 interceptions. The 2009 team finished the year with just 10 total interceptions.

AGAINST BAYLOR, THE TECH OFFENSE ...

- Posted a season-high 635 yards of total offense. This total is the most since racking up 739 yards against Kansas State last season.
- Scored 45 points, second highest total of season behind the 52 scored at New Mexico on Sept. 11.
- Posted the most first downs (35) in a game since totaling 31 in last year's Alamo Bowl win over Michigan State.
- Logged the most passing yards (462) since the Kansas State game (554) last season.
- Ran 95 total plays, which is the most since running 111 against Iowa State in 2003.

POTTS SETS COTTON BOWL PASSING RECORD

Senior quarterback Taylor Potts silenced his critics on Oct. 9 with a spectacular performance against the Baylor Bears in the Cotton Bowl. Potts led the Red Raiders to a 45-38 win over the Bears and in the process established the following records:

- Established a new career high in passing with 462 yards (21st most in school history and a Cotton Bowl Stadium record) through the air. His previous high was 456 set against Rice last season.
- The 462 passing yards is the third most all-time on a neutral field for a Tech quarterback and the most since Sonny Cumbie compiled 520 against California in the Holiday Bowl in 2004.
- The game marked the 10th 300-plus yard passing game of his career.

• Became the sixth quarterback in Texas Tech history to tally 500-plus completions in his career. He now owns 525 career completions.

Big 12's Top Passing Games - 2010

- 462 Potts, Taylor (Texas Tech) vs Baylor (10/9/10)
- 409 Weeden, Brandon (Oklahoma State) vs Tulsa (9/18/10)
- 409 Johnson, Jerrod (Texas A&M) at Ok. State (9/30/10)
- 384 Griffin III, Robert (Baylor) vs Texas Tech (10/9/10)
- 380 Jones, Landry (Oklahoma) vs Florida St. (9/11/10)
- 380 Griffin III, Robert (Baylor) vs Kansas (10/1/10)
- 377 Potts, Taylor (Texas Tech) at Iowa State (10/2/10)

LEONG TURNING HEADS ACROSS THE LEAGUE

Senior wide receiver Lyle Leong is in the midst of his best season as a Red Raider with 15 touchdown catches and 90 points scored. His 15 TD catches are tied for first in the Big 12 with Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon.

- His 28 career touchdown receptions rank third at Texas Tech.

SMITH SUSPENDED

Junior defensive end Scott Smith has been suspended for the year for a violation of team rules. Prior to the Baylor game, Smith had played in all four games and registered 14 total tackles along with three sacks.

LaCOUR LEADING THE SPECIAL TEAMS UNIT

The play of senior punter Jonathan LaCour has been one of the biggest surprises through three games this season. LaCour, who was suspended by the Big 12 for the first six games of 2009 and ended up not playing the entire year, is ninth in the Big 12 in punting at 41.6 yards-per-game. In his first punt of the 2010 season (and his first in a game since 2008), LaCour booted the pigskin 60 yards and that tied his career long that he set against Baylor in 2007.

"LYNWOOD" MOVES INTO SECOND

Two years removed from one of the most intriguing stories in all of college football, senior placekicker Matt "Lynwood" Williams has moved into second place on the career PAT list at Texas Tech. Williams earned national attention after former head coach Mike Leach stopped Williams after he participated in a third quarter Kick For Rent contest, sponsored by Lynwood Townhomes, on Sept. 20, 2008, against UMASS. Leach was so impressed by Williams that he offered him the chance to walk on and earn a spot on the team. Williams was successful in his try-out and his first collegiate action came at Kansas where he was successful on nine extra point attempts against the Jayhawks. His first career field goal (29-yards) came in the game against Texas the very next week.

- Since the Kansas game in 2008, Williams has made 129 extra point attempts and now ranks second behind Alex Trlica who owns both the school and NCAA record of 233.

OLD RELIABLE

Senior NT Colby Whitlock might very well be one of the best defensive linemen in the country and he has the resume to back it up. Whitlock has made 45 consecutive starts dating back to his freshman season in 2007 and will be in search of No. 46 on Saturday against Oklahoma. Whitlock, an Oklahoma native, cracked the starting lineup at Oklahoma State on Sept. 22, 2007, and hasn't looked back since - racking up 168 total tackles, including 29.5 for a loss.

TECH-TEXAS WAS A RATINGS HIT (AGAIN)

For the third consecutive year, ABC found ratings gold in its primetime match-up featuring Texas Tech and Texas. This year's game scored a 4.9 overnight rating and easily marked the most watched football game of the season on ABC. The ratings were up 14% from last year's game in Austin.

ALL DRESSED IN WHITE

There was a lot of white on the Texas Tech sideline against New Mexico as the Red Raiders dressed in white pants, white jerseys and white helmets. Tech wore white helmets in a game for the first time since the Jim Carlen era between 1970-74.

MAKE THAT EIGHT

Texas Tech's 35-27 victory over SMU on Sunday marked eight straight season-opening wins for the Red Raiders dating back to the 2003 season. The rare Sunday game (a first since the 1996 Alamo Bowl) was played before a national audience on ESPN and was the debut for coach Tommy Tuberville.

TUBERVILLE ERA BEGINS WITH A WIN

The much anticipated Tommy Tuberville era at Texas Tech began with a 35-27 win over SMU. Tuberville is now 2-1 all-time in his coaching career when starting a new job. He lost his opener at Ole Miss (46-13 to Auburn) in 1995 but was victorious in his debut at Auburn as the Tigers defeated Appalachian State 22-15 in 1999.

RECORD CROWDS TURN OUT FOR THE OPENER

The excitement of a new era of Red Raider football continues to build as record crowds turned out for Texas Tech's season opener against SMU. The second largest crowd (57,528) in Jones AT&T Stadium history watched the Red Raiders defeat SMU on Sunday afternoon. The 57,528 fans were the most to ever attend a home season opener and topped last season's home opening crowd of 47,824 against North Dakota. Amongst the crowd were 12,910 Texas Tech students and that is the largest student crowd in school history.

RAIDER WALK A HUGE SUCCESS

The first Raider Walk in school history was an overwhelming success as the crowd was estimated at between 10 and 12 thousand fans for the SMU game. Two weeks later against Texas, the crowd was estimated between 15-18 thousand fans. The Raider Walk is the pathway that the team takes by foot from the corner of Canton Ave. and Drive of Champions to the Football Training Facility. The walk begins two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff each home game.

FIRST TOUCHDOWNS GO TO LEONG

Senior quarterback Taylor Potts found his old high school buddy Lyle Leong in the corner of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown strike that marked the first of the season for the Red Raiders on Sunday against SMU. Leong didn't stop there as he caught the second touchdown (six-yard reception) of the game with 14:30 remaining in the second quarter to help the Red Raiders build a 14-0 lead.

CAREER DAY FOR LEONG

Lyle Leong got his senior year off with a bang as he led the Red Raider offense with 11 catches, 142 receiving yards and three touchdowns against SMU. Leong surpassed his previous career high of nine receptions and 117 yards receiving that he set last season against Rice. His three touchdowns on the afternoon tied his career high (set twice previously) and it marked the fifth multiple touchdown game of his career.

POTTS IMPRESSIVE AGAINST SMU

Senior quarterback Taylor Potts enjoyed a solid season opener on Sunday and led the Red Raiders to a 35-27 win over SMU. Potts completed 34 of 53 passes without an interception and piled up 359 passing yards along with four touchdowns through the air. In the season opener last season against North Dakota, Potts was 34-of-48 with three interceptions while throwing for 405 yards and two touchdowns.

PROTECTING THE HOUSE

As Under Armour (Texas Tech's official apparel provider) would say, "We Must Protect This House." Texas Tech has taken that motto seriously over the years as the Red Raiders have amassed a home record of 42-8 since 2003. The .840 winning percentage ranks third in the league behind Texas and Oklahoma.

RECORD SEASON TICKET SALES

The Red Raider faithful have spoken in record numbers in regards to the excitement of the arrival of coach Tuberville and this new era of Texas Tech football. On July 21, 2010, Texas Tech announced that a new school record in season ticket sales had been established - and by the first game against SMU, the old record was shattered. Texas Tech's final season ticket count was 46,565 which blew away the previous record of 41,740.

ALL ABOUT RED

Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville and the athletics department announced a new RED OUT Initiative on Friday, August 20. Red Raider fans have been urged to wear RED each and every time they attend a Texas Tech sporting event, home or away.

EXPANSION, EXPANSION

Texas Tech's Jones AT&T Stadium can lay claim to being one of just a few stadiums across the country that expanded twice within one calendar year. The addition of 6,000 north end zone seats prior to the Texas A&M game on Oct. 29, 2009, coupled with the opening of the east side stadium building for the 2010 season opener has increased stadium capacity to 60,454. The east side stadium building features 29 luxury suites along with 544 outdoor club seats as well as a private dining club that will be open daily to members. When combined with the west side stadium building, Jones AT&T Stadium now boasts 83 luxury suites and 1,644 club seats. In addition to the stadium, Texas Tech also spent close to 2.3 million in renovating the football training facility. A football hall of fame and turf practice field were added while the locker room and weight room underwent major renovations.

THIRD WINNINGEST PROGRAM THIS CENTURY

Texas Tech is the third winningest Big 12 program in this century. With 50 league wins since 2000, Texas Tech ranks behind Texas and Oklahoma who lead the way with 71 and 70, respectively.

EIGHT-STRAIGHT

Texas Tech football has reeled of eight-straight seasons of winning eight-plus games and that streak has made the Red Raiders one of the most consistent programs in the nation. Texas Tech is also in the middle of a streak of 15-straight winning seasons.

BIG 12 BOWL RECORD CONTINUES

Texas Tech's appearance in the 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl (a 41-31 win over Michigan State) marked the 16th-consecutive year of bowl eligibility for the Red Raider football program - a Big 12 record. Texas Tech will be looking to push that streak to 17 consecutive years this season and the Red Raiders will be in search of their 10th-straight bowl appearance and 34th overall.

DEGREES IN HAND

Eight players on this year's team have already completed the bachelor's degree and are either pursuing a second degree or are enrolled in graduate school.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

In what seems to be the norm in the summertime, the Red Raiders aren't getting any love when it comes to predicting the order of finish in the Big 12 South Division. Texas Tech is picked to finish fourth in the division behind Oklahoma, Texas and Texas A&M. Texas Tech has finished higher in the Big 12 South than its preseason prediction in four of the last five years.

PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Texas Tech has three offensive players listed on preseason watchlists in quarterback Taylor Potts, wide receiver Detron Lewis and running back Baron Batch. Potts is a preseason candidate for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback) for the second straight year as is Lewis who is up for the Biletnikoff Award (nation's top receiver). Batch is also a preseason candidate for the Doak Walker Award for the second straight year. On the defensive side, Brian Duncan has been named to the preseason watchlists for the Dick Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker), the Lott Trophy (nation's top defensive player) and the Bronko Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player).

YOUNG STAFF

Tommy Tuberville has assembled a young and energetic coaching staff here in his first season at Texas Tech and one that he believes can help bring Tech its first major football championship. The average age of this year's staff is 37 years old. Offensively, the average age drops to 31 years old and is led by Neal Brown (30), the third youngest coordinator in the FBS. Defensively, the average age is 39 years old and the group is anchored by James Willis (38), the 37th youngest coordinator in the FBS.

MASKED RIDER EARNS HIGH PRAISE

The Masked Rider was ranked as the ninth best mascot in college football according to a poll released on August 21, 2010, by The Associated Press. The poll listed the top 12 mascots in the nation and included Big 12 schools Colorado (Ralphie) and Texas (Bevo).

OFFENSIVE LINE GETS A MAKEOVER

Texas Tech's offensive line got a makeover during the offseason and the coaching staff hopes it pays dividends this season. Overall, the group only lost a total of 24 pounds but that does not give the proper insight into the radical change that has occurred. Terry McDaniel, Deveric Gallington, Mickey Okafor and LaAdrian Waddle lost a combined 98 pounds from the end of last season to the start of training camp. Tech offensive line coach Matt Moore wanted to see slimmer and more quick-footed players on the line and he hopes the changes in body types will do the trick. There were a few weight gains in the group as Lonnie Edwards gained 32 pounds, Jonathan Guerra added 16, Blake Emert put on 10 and Chris Olson added four.

START YOUR ENGINES

A new term in the Texas Tech offense is "NASCAR" and the only setback might be the fact that the officiating crew may not be able to keep pace. First-year offense coordinator Neal Brown will play an up-tempo scheme designed to keep the offense in a rhythm and hopefully the defense on its heels. One of the biggest changes from years past, is that the play calling will come from the sidelines and will no longer be in the hands of the quarterback.

THE STABLE IS FULL

Texas Tech running back coach Chad Scott can't help but get excited when he opens the barn door that reveals a talented stable of running backs. Led by senior Baron Batch, the running back situation at Texas Tech may be at its best since the late 1990's when Tech had the nickname of "Tailback U." Batch and sophomore Eric Stephens, who showed tremendous potential as a freshman, are leading the way for the Red Raiders but are getting a strong push from junior Aaron Crawford and freshman Ben McRoy.

POTTS NAMED STARTING QUARTERBACK

Senior gunslinger Taylor Potts was named the starting quarterback for the 2010 season and will take the reins of the Tech offense against SMU on Sept. 5. Potts, a 2010 Davey O'Brien preseason candidate, made 10 starts in 2009 and threw for 3,440 yards along with 22 touchdowns. He wrapped up the 2009 season in impressive fashion as he threw for 372 yards and two touchdowns on 29-of-43 passing against Michigan State in the Valero Alamo Bowl. That effort paced the Red Raiders to a 41-31 win over the Spartans and after the game he was named the offensive most valuable player.

NAME & JERSEY NUMBER CHANGE FOR POTTS

No more "Nick" and no more No. 15. Taylor Potts is just Taylor Potts and he is reverting back to his high school number (12) for his senior season.

NEW PHILOSOPHY

Possibly the biggest message of Coach Tuberville's brief tenure at Texas Tech has been that defense wins championships. That mentality has brought an entirely new focus to the Red Raider defensive unit that was often overlooked by Tech's high-powered offense. Led by coordinator James Willis, the new look Texas Tech defense will be aggressive and has some star power of its own in senior linebacker Bront Bird and Brian Duncan along with senior nose tackle Colby Whitlock. All three players have the potential to play at the next level and will be the catalysts for Willis' first defensive unit on the South Plains.

BIRD AND DUNCAN CLOG THE MIDDLE

Texas Tech will have two of the top linebackers in the Big 12 clogging up the middle in 2010 with the return of seniors Bront Bird and Brian Duncan. Duncan was the team leader in tackles last season with 88 and will be another key figure in 2010. Duncan will be moving to the outside this year and will at times be like a rush end. He has been named to the watchlists for the Butkus Award as well as the Lott and Nagurski Trophies. Bird finished sixth on the team in 2009 with 56 total tackles and has become one of the key leaders on the defensive unit. He gained nearly 10 pounds in the off season and will make the move to middle linebacker after playing previously on the outside.

DAVIS LOOKS FOR BIG THINGS AS SOPHOMORE

Sophomore safety Cody Davis earned Freshman All-American honors in his Red Raider debut in 2009 and now he's looking to shake the freshman title and become Tech's first defensive All-American since Kevin Curtis in 2001. Davis was second on the squad with 81 total tackles in 2009 and picked up honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Taylor Potts threw for 359 yards and four touchdowns to lead Texas Tech over SMU 35-27 and give Tommy Tuberville a victory Sunday in his first game as Red Raiders coach.

Tuberville took over after the popular and successful Mike Leach was fired in December amid allegations he mistreated an injured player.

Tuberville promised to stick with a pass-heavy offense that helped Leach make the Red Raiders famous. Promise kept.

Potts was 34 for 53 with no interceptions and connected with Lyle Leong for three scores and Detron Lewis for the other.

Texas Tech ran its winning streak against SMU to 14 games, dating back to 1989.

Eric Stephens rushed for 3-yard TD to put Texas Tech up 35-14 midway through the third quarter.

The Mustangs had a chance late and were driving when they failed to convert a fourth-and-21 from the 50 on their final drive.

Texas Tech intercepted SMU quarterback Kyle Padron three times. He threw for 218 yards. The Mustangs rallied behind their special teams. Darryl Fields returned a kickoff 92 yards to set up a 24-yard field to pull SMU within 35-17. Early in the fourth, Matt Szymanski booted a 61-yard field, his longest ever.

Texas Tech's defense had to task of trying to stop Padron, who threw for a school-record 460 yards and two touchdowns running coach June Jones' run-n-shoot in a 45-10 win over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

For Leong it was a career day in receptions and yardage, grabbing 11 passes for 142 yards. Stephens touchdown came late in the third quarter when he juke'd back and forth in the backfield before getting around defenders on the right side and skipping untouched into the end zone.

Tech's special teams and defense set up the first two Red Raiders scores. Cornelius Douglas forced a fumble as Kenneth Acker fielded a punt deep in SMU's own territory late in the first quarter and Franklin Mitchell recovered it at the 18.

Tech ran the ball four consecutive times - something Leach rarely did - before Potts found Leong in the corner of the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown to give Tech a 7-0 lead.

On the second play of SMU's next possession, redshirt freshman Jarvis Phillips stepped in front of a pass from Padron to set up Potts's second TD pass. The 6-yard score went over the middle to Leong who was wide open near the back of the end zone.

SMU scored its first touchdown on its final drive of the first half as Padron led a 13-play drive, including his scrambling for 18 yards for a first down on fourth-and-3 from Tech's 34. Zach Line scored from 2 yards and the Mustangs were down by only one score.

Tuberville's 111th career victory came in the Red Raiders now-less-lopsided stadium. The east side of the stadium now has a $25 million addition where all 29 new suites were sold for the opener. The addition ups the stadium's capacity to 60,454.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Taylor Potts tossed three touchdown passes, with two of those going to Lyle Leong, to lead Texas Tech to a 52-17 victory Saturday over New Mexico.

The Red Raiders (2-0) benefited from two blocked punts at the beginning of each half that led to short touchdown drives.

The Lobos (0-2) didn't help themselves, committing 16 penalties that cost them 145 yards.

New Mexico quarterback B.R. Holbrook had 323 yards passing, his first career 300-yard game, and UNM receiver Ty Kirk set a career high with 119 yards.

Potts, who completed passes to nine different receivers, went 22-34 in the air, with Leong catching five for 75 yards.

Baron Batch also rushed for two touchdowns for Texas Tech.

The Red Raiders took a 24-3 lead early in the second quarter before the Lobos closed within 31-17 and had a chance for more points before halftime, but an offensive pass interference and a personal foul on the same play negated a UNM touchdown with seven seconds left.

Texas Tech scored 45 seconds into the game on a 55-yard pass from Potts to Austin Zouzalik.

Aaron Crawford then blocked a punt on the Lobos' next possession with Jonathan Brydon recovering at the 3. Eric Stephens scored on the next play for a 14-0 Red Raiders' lead five minutes into the game.

After a New Mexico field goal on the next possession, Stephens returned the kickoff 93 yards to the UNM 7, with Batch scoring two plays later.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Garrett Gilbert threw for two touchdowns and 227 yards to lead No. 6 Texas past Texas Tech 24-14 in a sloppy victory for the Longhorns on Saturday night.

Texas put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter after draining more than nine minutes off the clock. The 22-play drive included a risky and successful fake punt on fourth-and-1 on its own 29.

Gilbert capped the march with a 1-yard pass to Barrett Matthews to give the Horns a 24-14 lead with 9:26 left. Gilbert finished 21 of 36 with three interceptions.

The game included seven turnovers, four by the Longhorns (3-0, 1-0) and three by the Red Raiders (2-1, 0-1).

Texas got a field goal and a touchdown off two Texas Tech turnovers. Red Raiders cornerback Jarvis Phillips intercepted Gilbert twice and returned one 87 yards for a score.

Taylor Potts finished 21 of 35 for 159 yards, with a touchdown and two interceptions for Tech.

In the opening drive of the third quarter Curtis Brown intercepted a pass from Potts at the Texas 14 and it appeared he would scamper for a touchdown. But Baron Batch caught up with Brown and tackled him at the Texas Tech 14. The Longhorns got only a field goal, though.

On the long drive that put Texas up 24-14, they got help from Will Ford on a third-and-13 from the Red Raiders 27. Greg Smith dropped a pass from Gilbert but Ford was called for a taunting penalty to give Texas a first down and another shot to get a score. A few plays later Gilbert hit Matthews with a lob pass for the touchdown.

James Kirkendoll had six catches for 122 yards for Texas.

Texas coach Mack Brown wanted more points early - the Longhorns had scored only a field in opening quarters of first two games - and he got them. In the first 7:30 minutes Texas had two touchdowns.

On Texas Tech's first play from scrimmage, the snap went over the head of Potts and was recovered by Jackson Jeffcoat at the Red Raiders 7. On the next play Fozzy Whittaker rushed it in, stretching his arm across the goal line to put the Horns up 7-0.

Texas Tech couldn't get a first down and when Texas got the ball to Gilbert he led the Longhorns on 79-yard scoring drive, including a 33-yard pass to Kirkendoll. Gilbert rolled out to his right and hit Mike Davis for a 7-yard score to put Texas up 14-0.

Gilbert had the Longhorns at the Red Raiders 20 when Scott Smith intercepted him at the 13. On the next play Potts got his second turnover when Blake Gideon, who in 2008 dropped a sure interception right before Michael Crabtree caught the game-winning pass to lift Texas Tech over the then-topped-ranked Longhorns 39-33, plucked the ball at UT's 43 and returned it 22 yards.

Four plays later with the Longhorns threatening again at the Red Raiders 19, Smith tipped the ball and cornerback Phillips Jarvis grabbed it and scooted 87 yards along the near sideline to pull the Red Raiders within 14-7 with 1:39 left in the first quarter.

The Longhorns looked shaky on their next drive and were forced to punt. Batch's 25-yard run put the Red Raiders on UT's 43 and a few plays later Potts threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to the corner of the end zone and his high school teammate, Lyle Leong, pulled it in to tie the game at 14-14 early in the second quarter.

GAME FOUR • Iowa State 52, Texas Tech 38

AMES, Iowa (AP) - Austen Arnaud threw a career-high four touchdown passes and Jeremy Reeves capped a wild game by returning an onside kick 42 yards for a touchdown, leading Iowa State to a 52-38 victory over Texas Tech on Saturday night.

Iowa State (3-2, 1-1 Big 12) built a 24-0 lead in the first half, saw the Red Raiders (2-2, 0-2) rally to tie it, then capitalized on a fumble recovery to regain the lead in the fourth quarter when the teams combined for 42 points.

Taylor Potts threw five touchdown passes for Texas Tech, the last a 26-yarder to Lyle Leong to draw the Red Raiders within 45-38 with 2:05 left. The Red Raiders then tried an onside kick, but Reeves grabbed the ball and ran it back for a touchdown to finally put it out of reach.

Iowa State coach Paul Rhoads got the victory over his former boss, Tommy Tuberville of Texas Tech.

Rhoads was the defensive coordinator at Auburn in 2008 when Tuberville was the Tigers' head coach.

With the score 24-24 late in the third quarter, Tech's Detron Lewis fumbled and ISU's Jake Knott recovered at the Red Raiders' 39.

Five plays later, 6-foot-5 tight end Collin Franklin leaped in the back of the zone to grab a 27-yard pass from Arnaud for the go-ahead score. After the Red Raiders went three-and-out, freshman Shontrelle Johnson sprinted 61 yards for a touchdown and a 38-24 lead, which proved to be just enough for Iowa State to hold on.

The 52 points were the most by Iowa State in a Big 12 game and Reeves' kickoff return was the first for a score by an ISU player since Troy Davis took one back on Nov. 19, 1994 at Colorado.

The Cyclones needed the high-scoring night because after a slow start, Potts had the Red Raiders motoring up and down the field the way Tech teams have become accustomed to moving.

Potts completed 42 of 62 passes for 377 yards and one interception. Three of his touchdown passes went to Leong, who had nine catches for 125 yards.

Arnaud, who had only two touchdown passes entering the game, went 20-for-28 for 190 yards and was not intercepted.

Teammate Alexander Robinson set up a touchdown with a 65-yard run and finished with 103 yards in 12 carries. Johnson, a freshman, carried 12 times for 102 yards. It was the first time Iowa State had two 100-yard rushers in a game since the 2004 Independence Bowl.

After Tech drew to 38-31 on Potts' 10-yard TD pass to Eric Stephens, Arnaud took Iowa State on a 6-minute drive that he finished with a 4-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Kurt Hammerschmidt. Potts took Tech right back down the field for his final touchdown pass to Leong before Reeves returned the onside kick for a TD.

Arnaud threw touchdown passes of 36 yards to Darius Reynolds and 14 yards to Josh Lenz. Tech got back in it with touchdowns 36 seconds apart at the end of the first half, then tied it in the third quarter on Matt Williams' 24-yard field goal and Potts' 21-yard TD pass to Leong.

DALLAS (AP) - Taylor Potts threw for 462 yards and four touchdowns, and Texas Tech avoided its first-ever 0-3 start in the Big 12 as it held off Baylor 45-38 on Saturday.

The Red Raiders (3-2, 1-2) were coming off consecutive losses to Texas and Iowa State. Texas Tech hadn't been 0-3 in league play since 1990 when it was a member of the now-defunct Southwest Conference.

Potts, who completed 15 straight passes on one point in the first half and finished 42 of 59, guided an offense which gained 635 total yards.

Baylor (4-2, 1-1) has dropped 15 consecutive games to Texas Tech. The Bears were looking to start 5-1 for the first time since 1994, the last year they played in a bowl game.

Terrance Ganaway returned an onside kick for a touchdown and quarterback Robert Griffin threw for 384 yards and accounted for four touchdowns, including a 2-yard run that cut Texas Tech's lead to 45-38 early in the fourth quarter.

The Bears had chances to tie the game after that. They had a drive stall at the 16 when they couldn't convert fourth-and-15.

Baylor had one last opportunity when it took possession at its 34 with 57 seconds left. The Bears drove to the Tech 31, but time expired before they got off a final play.

Saturday's game was played at the Cotton Bowl, the second straight time Texas Tech and Baylor have faced off at a neutral site. Last season's meeting was played at nearby Cowboys Stadium.

Potts, who was 25 of 32 for 306 yards in the first half, threw a 3-yard scoring pass to Alex Torres that gave the Red Raiders a 28-21 lead in the second quarter. Torres also had a 1-yard TD in the opening quarter.

The Texas Tech senior's string of consecutive completions came to an end when he misfired on a short screen pass late in the first half. Two plays later, Potts connected with Lewis on a 10-yard score to cap a 92-yard drive and put the Red Raiders ahead 35-21.

Kendall Wright, who had 145 yards receiving, hauled in a 62-yard touchdown pass from Griffin to bring Baylor within 35-28 with 1:17 left in the first half.

The Bears went 82 yards on its opening drive, which was capped by Griffin's 1-yard sneak. The Red Raiders answers when Eric Stephens broke free for a 10-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-1.

Texas Tech attempted an onside kick, but the ball didn't travel the required 10 yards. After a Red Raiders player failed to touch the ball, Ganaway scooped up the loose ball and ran 38 yards for a touchdown.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Justin Blackmon had a career-high 207 yards receiving with a touchdown to lead No. 20 Oklahoma State to a 34-17 win over Texas Tech on Saturday, the Cowboys' first in Lubbock since 1944.

Blackmon's 62-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter was the longest play of the game and put the contest out of reach for the Cowboys. Brandon Weeden completed 24 of 35 passes for 356 yards, the touchdown and two interceptions.

The Cowboys (6-0, 2-0 Big 12) went ahead 21-0 in the first quarter after three rushing touchdowns - 15 yards by Kendall Hunter, and 4 yards each by Joseph Randle and Jeremy Smith - and Texas Tech couldn't put together enough offense in the second half to make it a contest.

Blackmon's previous career high for receiving yards came last week against Louisiana-Lafayette, when he had 13 catches for 190 yards. He caught 10 passes Saturday.

Taylor Potts, who had 462 yards passing in last week's 45-38 win over Baylor, went 28 of 43 for 226 yards and a touchdown for Texas Tech (3-3, 1-3).

During halftime he was taken to a hospital to be checked for a concussion after a hit in the jaw, Texas Tech coach Tommy Tuberville said. Potts returned and played the entire second half.

It's the second time in three years the Cowboys started 6-0, and the fourth time overall.

Hunter, ranked fifth in the nation in rushing coming into the game, finished with 130 yards on 25 carries. He had been averaging 140.

The Cowboys failed to score in their first possession of the second half for the first time this season. The drive ended when Bront Bird intercepted Weeden at the Texas Tech 26.

A few plays into the drive Baron Batch fumbled and Jamie Blatnick recovered it for the Cowboys at their own 36. Two plays later, Weeden found Blackmon at about the Texas Tech 40 and the standout receiver ran along the sideline for the 62-yard scoring strike.

The Red Raiders didn't score until their sixth possession, their first drive of the second quarter, when Batch scored from the 1 to whittle the deficit to 21-7. After stopping the Cowboys, Texas Tech needed just 2:41 to pull closer. Potts faked a throw to the outside before finding Cornelius Douglas over the middle for a 28-yard touchdown that made it 21-14.

Texas Tech looked lethargic in the first quarter as the Cowboys piled up 215 total yards to 38 for the Red Raiders. They punted five times and went three-and-out in their first three possessions. By the time the Red Raiders got their initial first down, they were already trailing 14-0.

The Cowboys came out running the ball. On their second possession OSU ran on all five plays before Hunter, averaging 140 yards per game coming in, rumbled 15 yards for a touchdown - his 10th this season - to put the Cowboys up 7-0. Of the 61 yards on the drive, Kendall had 46.

The Red Raiders struggled on defense too, giving up plays of at least 25 yards four times in the first quarter.

Weeden went to his top receiver often and successfully. He found Blackmon four times for 74 yards in the first quarter alone.

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) Matt Williams' 36-yard field goal with 2:09 left capped Texas Tech's comeback from a 10-point deficit and gave the Red Raiders a 27-24 win over Colorado on Saturday.

The Red Raiders (4-3, 2-3 Big 12) started the game-winning drive at midfield after Austin Zouzalik thwarted the Buffaloes' rugby punt strategy by grabbing the line-drive at his 47.

After Williams' field goal, the Buffaloes (3-4, 0-3) turned the ball over on downs at their own 22 with 1:44 left when Cody Hawkins misfired on three throws and completed another for 2 yards.

Hawkins replaced injured starter Tyler Hansen (ribs) late in the first half and led the Buffaloes to a field goal that gave them a 10-7 halftime lead. He then hooked up for two scores with freshman Paul Richardson as the Buffs built a 24-14 lead.

Williams' 40-yard field goal as the first play of the fourth quarter made it 24-17, and after Eric Goodman was wide right on a 35-yard attempt for Colorado, the Red Raiders drove 80 yards in seven plays and tied it on Taylor Potts' 7-yard touchdown pass to Lyle Leong with 11 minutes left.

The Red Raiders were about to go ahead when Colorado cornerback Jalil Brown intercepted a fade pass in his end zone that was intended for Detron Lewis with six minutes remaining.

But the Buffs were forced to punt and that's when their strategy, which they hoped would result in a bouncing ball down the field, was thwarted by Zouzalik.

Potts hit Lewis for 14 yards and Baron Batch ran for 14 more, setting up Williams' game-winner.

After a slow start, Potts completed 24 of 38 passes for 286 yards and two TDs. Alex Torres caught six passes for 133 yards, and Lewis had a half dozen receptions that covered 84 yards.

For a while it looked like Hawkins would overshadow Potts. He hooked up with Richardson for TD passes of 3 and 60 yards as Richardson became the first freshman in school history to catch two touchdown throws in a game.

Hansen was having a good game when he got hurt, completing all but one of his 10 passes and running for the game's first score. But he was blasted by linebacker Tyrone Sonier just as he pitched the ball to tailback Rodney Stewart on an option play late in the first half.

Hawkins came in and completed 6 of 9 passes for 77 yards but the Buffs' drive stalled at the 3 and Goodman's 23-yard field goal gave Colorado a 10-7 halftime lead.

In between his two TD throws to Richardson, the Red Raiders capped a 93-yard drive with Potts' 15-yard frozen rope touchdown throw to Torres.

In the first half, Hansen's 1-yard keeper put Colorado ahead 7-0, and the Red Raiders, who came in averaging 31.5 yards passing, had trouble getting going in Boulder's thin air.

Finally, Potts hit Torres for a 17-yard gain and Eric Stephens reeled off a 25-yard run after he decked out freshman safety Terrel Smith at the line of scrimmage. Smith was making his debut after discarding his redshirt in the face of an injury epidemic in the Buffs' defensive backfield, where five players have suffered serious injuries.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Ryan Tannehill had a school-record 449 yards passing and four touchdowns in his first career start and Cyrus Gray ran for two more scores as Texas A&M beat Texas Tech 45-27 on Saturday.

The Aggies (5-3, 2-2 Big 12) trailed 7-0 early, but Tannehill threw three touchdown passes in the first half to give Texas A&M a 24-14 halftime lead. Gray had touchdown runs of 54 and 2 yards in the third quarter to stretch the lead to 38-14.

Taylor Potts threw for 227 yards and a touchdown for the Red Raiders (4-4, 2-4). But Texas Tech fumbled twice near the goal line and Potts was replaced by Steven Sheffield in the fourth quarter. Sheffield had 129 yards passing and two touchdowns.

Jeff Fuller caught two of Tannehill's touchdown passes and finished with 11 receptions for 171 yards to become the second player in Texas A&M history to reach 2000 career yards receiving.

The Red Raiders opened the second half with a drive that included a 54-yard reception by Detron Lewis. It was halted when Lewis caught an 11-yard pass on the next play and fumbled the ball, which was recovered in the end zone by the Aggies. It was the second time Texas A&M recovered a fumble in their own end zone.

Texas A&M's offense got going in the second quarter with Tannehill finding Michael Lamothe on a 3-yard touchdown pass for a 10-7 lead. Lamothe added a touchdown on a 1-yard reception that made it 45-20 in the fourth quarter.

Fuller's first touchdown was on a 6-yard reception that pushed A&M's lead to 17-7.

Tech cut the lead to 17-14 when Lyle Leong caught a short pass from Potts and dashed untouched into the end zone about three minutes later. Adam James made his first catch of the season on a 12-yard reception on that drive. He took a hard hit on the play that drew a flag on Texas A&M's Von Miller. Former Tech coach Mike Leach was fired in December amid allegations that he mistreated James after he suffered a concussion.

Fuller gave the Aggies a 24-14 lead after a 2-yard touchdown catch with 9 seconds left in the first half. That drive was helped by two personal fouls on Tech for targeting defenseless receivers.

Texas Tech jumped out to an early 7-0 lead when Eric Stephens scored on a 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. The Red Raiders took possession after Texas A&M's pass on fourth-and-1 from the Tech 48 was batted down.

Texas Tech forced a fumble by the Aggies on its next possession and was about to stretch the lead to two touchdowns, but Stephens fumbled near the goal line and Texas A&M recovered. The Aggies capitalized on that error with a 28-yard field goal by Randy Bullock that cut the lead to 7-3.

Texas A&M running back Christine Michael suffered a broken right tibia on a carry in the third quarter.

GAME NINE • Texas Tech 24, Missouri 17

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL

Texas Tech	3	7	14	0	24

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Taylor Potts came off the bench and threw for 188 yards and three touchdowns to lead Texas Tech over No. 14 Missouri 24-17 on Saturday.

Potts didn't start for the first time this season but came in late in the first half and threw TD passes of 8, 5 and 16 yards on three straight possessions by the Red Raiders (5-4, 3-4 Big 12) spanning the halves to wipe out a 17-3 deficit.

Missouri disappeared for two quarters, but Zaviar Gooden's interception at the Tigers 2 kept the game close. Still, the Tigers failed to move the ball into Red Raiders territory.

Blaine Gabbert completed 12-of-30 passes for 95 yards for the Tigers (7-2, 3-2), who have lost two straight and will have a tough time making up the difference on first-place Nebraska. Missouri lost to the Cornhuskers last week.

Red Raiders coach Tommy Tuberville has said all season he wanted his team to get 150 rushing yards a game. Texas Tech got 198 yards on 51 carries, with Baron Batch going for 134.

Missouri had chances with less than five minutes remaining in the game. Gabbert threw two passes into the end zone from Texas Tech's 34 that appeared catchable. But neither Wes Kemp nor Jerrell Jackson could pull the ball in for a tying score.

Potts watched from the sideline as backup quarterback Steven Sheffield started. Sheffield completed 11-of-20 passes for 99 yards.

When Potts went in the Red Raiders offense began to click at the same time that Missouri's began to struggle. After the first quarter, Gabbert's passes lacked accuracy. He completed only three in the third quarter for 15 yards.

On the third play from scrimmage, Marcus Murphy took a pitch from Gabbert and rumbled 69 yards for a 7-0. It was the longest rushing play of the season for Missouri. The teams traded three-and-outs before Kendial Lawrence bested Murphy's run and went 71 yards untouched along the far sideline to make it 14-0.

The two TD runs gave Missouri just 2 fewer yards (140) than they got the whole game in its 31-17 loss at Nebraska (142). The Tigers finished with 260 rushing yards on 31 carries. Lawrence had 102 yards on six carries.

Sheffield, who started his first game of the season, struggled to put drives together. On five of the seven drives with Sheffield taking snaps the Red Raiders punted. They got a field goal to trail 14-3 and lost a fumble on the other two possessions.

With about five minutes left in the half Tuberville pulled Sheffield and put in Potts, who promptly led Texas Tech on 16-play drive, capping it with an 8-yard touchdown pass to Detron Lewis.

After dominating the first quarter, Missouri got 85 total yards in the second and 22 in the third. The Tigers managed only three first downs in the second half.
