LAST TIME OUT: In their season opener, the Rattlers dropped a 17-14 decision to Tennessee State in the 14th annual Big John Merritt Classic.

Oklahoma picked up their first win of the season at the defeated University of Texas at El Paso, 24-7 in the season opener at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

WHAT'S AT STAKE:

- For FAMU, it would be their first win over Football Bowl Sub-division opponent since 1979, when the Rattlers defeated the University of Miami, 16-13. In addition, this will be the Rattlers first win of the 2012 season.

- A win for the Sooners would be their 11th win against an opponent from the Sunshine State. Oklahoma is currently 10-6 against opponents from the state of Florida. Last season the Sooners defeated cross-town rival Florida State, 23-12 on Sept. 17, 2011 at Doak Campbell Stadium.

THE SERIES HISTORICAL:

Rattlers against Oklahoma
This will be the first ever meeting between FAMU and the University of Oklahoma.

FAMU against FBS Opponents:

FAMU have face 15 FBS opponents since the 1979 season with the Rattlers defeating the University of Miami, 16-13. Since 1980, the Rattlers have dropped 13 straight against FBS schools. For a brief moment, FAMU was FBS member institution and played a FBS school in 2004. FAMU dropped a 70-17 contest to the University of South Florida, on Sept. 17, 2011.

The most points a FAMU team have scored against a FBS opponent was 19 points, when the Rattlers dropped a 39-19 decision to Tulane University during the 2004 season, when FAMU played a FBS schedule.

RATTLERS AT GLANCE:

FAMU in their season opener, the Rattlers dropped a 17-14 contest to Tennessee State at LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

FAMU was paced by sophomore

quarterback Damien Fleming as he passes for 119 yards by completing 15 passes in 30 attempts with one TD and one interception.

Senior running back Eddie Rocker led the Rattlers ground attack as he rushed for 90 yards on 13 carries with his longest rush being for 33 yards, while senior wide receiver Travis Harvey led the Rattlers in reception with six catches for 52 yards.

On special team, the Rattlers were led by senior punter Branden Holdren as he tallied 207 yards on five boots to average 41.4 yards per punt. Junior running back had pair of big kick returns for the Rattlers as he tallied 99 yards on four returns with his longest being for 54 yards.

Brandon Hepburn was named the 14th annual Big John Merritt Classic Defensive Most Valuable Player as he finished the contest with a team high 10 tackles, 1.5 Sacks, 3.5 tackles for loss, one force fumble and one fumble return.

#4 Oklahoma at a glance: This past weekend, the Sonners won their first game of the season as they defeated UTEP, 24-7 on Sept. 1 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

OU ground attack was paced running back Damien Williams, as he rushed for 104 yards on nine carries with one TD with his longest rush being for 65 yards.

Landry Jones the Sonner signal caller finished the contest as he passed for 222 yards, by completing 21 passes in 36 attempts with two TDs.

Kenny Stills was the hot target for Jones as he recorded six catches for 121 yards and one TD.

On special team, the OU was led by Tress Way, who recorded seven punts for 325 yards to average 46.4 yards per punt.

Tony Jefferson led the Sonner defense as he recorded a team high 10 tackles and one pass breakup.

Three Rattlers in Graduate School This season, the Florida A&M Football team will have three Rattlers in Graduate School. Robert Hartley (B.S. Political Science), a 6-7 senior right tackle from Lake City, Fla., Brandon Hepburn (B.S. Chemistry), a 6-4 senior linebacker from Pamona, N. Y. and Padric Scott (B.S. Biology), a 6-1 senior nose guard from Tallahassee, Fla., all received their college this past spring semester.

Hepburn is currently pursuing a Masters degree in Business Administration; Robert Hartley is currently pursuing a Masters degree in Criminology and Padric Scott is currently pursuing a Masters in Biology.

Joe Taylor has graduated 54 Rattlers since 2009
FAMU head coach Joe Taylor is in his fifth season has seen 54 of his student-athlete walk across the stage and receive their degree.

Chasing Eddie Robinson: FAMU head football coach Joe Taylor currently had 230 career wins and ranks fourth in career wins among HBCU Football coaches and needs just six more wins to become second among HBCU Coaches.

Coach Robinson's 408 wins far surpasses anyone active or inactive in the HBCU ranks, but FAMU's Joe Taylor (230) will be making a bid for the #2 spot on that list this season, needing just six wins to pass Hall of Fame legends Arnett "Ace" Mumford (233) and "Big John" Merritt (235), to move behind Robinson.

Coach	Wins
Eddie Robinson	408
"Big" John Merritt	235
Arnett "Ace" Mumford	233
Joseph "Joe" Taylor	230

THE COACHING MATCHUP:

Florida A&M's Joseph "Joe" Taylor (Western Illinois, '72) is in his 30th season as a collegiate head coach, bringing a career record of 230-91-4 into the second week of the season

Bob Stoops (Iowa, 1983) is entering his 14th season has head coach of the Oklahoma Sooners, bring a record of 141-34 into the second week of the season.

RATTLER BRIEFS AND NOTES

Rattlers have three record holders on coaching staff

Coach Joe Taylor has four FAMU graduates on his coaching staff, with three of them still in the Rattler Football record books.... Defensive coordinator and linebackers' coach Earl Holmes (1992-95), is the school's all-time tackles leader (509) and also holds numerous single game and single season records.... New quarterbacks coach Quinn Gray (1998-2001) still reigns as the school's all-time passing leader with 7,378 yards and 57 TDs.... Kicking and special teams coach Juan Vasquez (2000-03) still holds the record for career field goals (66).

FAMU seeking first playoff trip since 2001

With Vasquez and Gray together again, the Rattlers are hoping to complete their return to prominence in football field by reaching the NCAA playoffs... Gray (1998-2001) and Vasquez (2000-03) played together on the last two FAMU playoff teams (2000, 2001), while Gray was a member of the 1998 and 1999 squads that advanced out of the first round.... Also, both players were key members of two MEAC championship teams in 2000 and 2001.

RATTLER BRIEFS AND NOTES

NOTES

2012 FLORIDA A&M FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

The Florida A&M Football team has high expectations for the 2012 Football season as they look to win the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Championship and return to the NCAA Football Championship playoffs for the first time since 2001.

FAMU finished last season 7-4 overall and 5-3 in MEAC play for a third place finish in the conference. The Rattlers will return 76 letter winners (Offense: 31; Defense: 41; Specialists: 4) from last year's team.

Running Backs

Last season the Rattler offense was among the top units in the MEAC, ranking: second in passing offense (227.2); fourth in scoring offense (28.1 ppg); sixth in total offense (339.3); eighth in rushing offense (112.1); and fifth in passing efficiency (124.8).

This season the Rattlers will feature a veteran backfield with quality backs that will see plenty of action in 2012.

Eddie Rocker, a 5-8 senior from Ocala, Fla., saw action in all 11 of FAMU's games as he rushed for 524 yards on 104 carries, averaging 5.0 yards per carry, with three TDs. He rushed for a season high 128 yards on 17 carries against North Carolina Central (11-12-11) and rushed for 107 yards on 12 carries the previous week in the Rattlers win over North Carolina A&T (11-5-11).

Another speedster the Rattlers will have in the back field will be Al-Terek McBurse, a 5-11 senior from Oviedo, Fla., who was plagued last season with injuries. McBurse saw action in nine games as he rushed for 349 yards on 53 carries, averaging 6.6 yards per carry, with four TDs. He earned MEAC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance against Savannah State, as he rushed for a season high 218 yards on 12 carries with three TDs.

FAMU will also use the services of Lavante Page, a 5-11 senior from Atlanta, Ga., a big bruising back that posses both speed and power. Page saw action in all 11 of the Rattlers games last season, as he rushed for 329 yards on 118 carries with 13 TDs. In addition, he finished the season with 15 catches out of the backfield for 107 yards with one TD, giving a total of 14 TDs on the season, leaving him one shy of the single season school record (15). Page helped initiate come from behind win in the 2011 Bank of America Football Classic, as he rushed for 73 yards on 16 carries, scoring five TDs, leading the Rattlers a 38-33 win over Southern University (9-24-11).

Rounding out the cast of returnees in the Rattler backfield will be Jordan Stanley, a 5-10 sophomore from Tallahassee, Fla., who rushed for 20 yards in limited action, and James Owens, a 5-9 red-shirt senior from Apopka, Fla., who was academically ineligible last season, after rushing for 60 yards on 14 carries in ten games in 2010.

Wide Receivers

FAMU will have a young receiving group in 2012, and will look to Lenworth Lennon to provide leadership with departure of Kevin Elliott and Bryan Tyms, who both signed NFL free agent contracts, this past spring.

Lennon, a 5-9 redshirt sophomore from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., saw action in all 11 of FAMU's games last season, leading the Rattlers in receptions with 45 catches for 596 yards, with two TDs.

He was named the MEAC Rookie of the Week on September 5 as he was the hero in the Rattlers win over Fort Valley State. With seconds left in the game, quarterback Austin Trainor's pass intended for Kevin Elliott was tipped, landing in the hands of Lennon, who scampered 68 yards for a TD, giving FAMU a 28-22 win.

Lennon finished that contest with 73 receiving yards on two catches, then against Delaware State (10-1-11), he recorded a season high 113 receiving yards on five catches.

Also vying for playing time in 2012 will be the Harvey boys (no relation), Travis Harvey, a 6-3 red-shirt senior from Los Angeles, Calif., and Dewayne Harvey, a 6-1 sophomore from Tallahassee, Fla.

Last season, Dewayne recorded nine catches for 77 yards with one TD in four games, while Travis saw action in four games with one catch for ten yards.

2012 FLORIDA A&M FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

At tight end FAMU will return Michael Etheridge, a 6-2 junior from Tallahassee, Fla., and Anthony Ray, 6-4 redshirt senior from Lakeland, Fla.

Etheridge saw action in all 11 games last season as he tallied nine catches for 88 yards, while Ray participated in three games making three catches for 23 yards.

Offensive Line

The Rattler offensive line will return two starters from last season in both Steven Robinson and Robert Hartley. Both Robinson, a 6-3 red shirt senior from Tallahassee, Fla., and Hartley a 6-7, senior from Lake City, Fla., started in all 11 of FAMU's games last season with Robinson at left guard and Hartley at right guard. This season Hartley will make the transition from right guard to right tackle. Last season these two guardians of the quarterback were part of an offense, that racked a season high 448 total offensive yards (291 rushing, 157 passing) against Savannah State (10-15-11) and tallied 439 yards of total offense (142 rushing, 297 passing) against South Carolina State (10-22-11).

Also returning will be a trio of players who saw limited action last season, but will compete for starting spots this season: Kawika Pieper, a 6-3 sophomore from Honolulu, Hawaii, Kevin House, a 6-5 sophomore from Jacksonville, Fla., and Aaron Wynn, a 6-5 sophomore from Pinellas County, Fla.

Quarterbacks

Returning at the quarterback position will be a pair of skilled field generals. Damien Fleming, a 6-3 sophomore from Jacksonville, Fla., and Tyler Bass, a 6-0 red shirt senior from Atlanta, Ga., who transferred from Memphis last spring.

Fleming, who broke his way into the Rattler starting lineup, coming off the bench in the second half of the Atlanta Football Classic, leading FAMU to 21 points to rally past Southern University, 38-33. He finished the contest with 76 yards passing as he completed six passes in eight attempts.

The next week against Delaware State, Fleming made his first collegiate start, for 245 yards and a TD, as he completed 14 passes in 29 attempts, while rushing for another score, leading the Rattlers to a 34-7 win over the Hornets.

In the Rattlers first-ever win over South Carolina State in ten seasons, Fleming threw for a season high 297 yards, completing 34 passes in 40 attempts, as the Rattlers scored two fourth quarter TDs to defeat the Bulldogs, 27-24 at Orangeburg, S.C.

Fleming finished the 2011 season with 1,622 passing yards on 131 completions (218 attempts), with 11 TD passes and just five interceptions, while rushing for two TDs.

Bass, who was plagued with injuries last season, will also fight for the starting quarterback position, after a strong spring training camp, and a solid performance in the Spring Game, as he passed for 128 yards completing 16 of 29 passes with one TD.

The Defense

Defensively, FAMU will return six starters and 41 letter winners from a 2011 defense that ranked first in the conference in interceptions (22); second in passing defense efficiency (105.9); sixth in the conference in scoring defense (24.6); sixth in rushing defense (144.3) and eighth in total defense (341.4).

Defensive Line

In 2012, the Rattler defensive line will return Padric Scott, a 6-1 red shirt senior from Tallahassee, Fla., who graduated this past spring with his degree in Biology. Scott started in all 11 of FAMU's games last season at nose guard, finishing the season with 28 total takedowns (17 UA, 11 A), six tackles for loss, three sacks, one forced fumbles and three quarterback hurries. He recorded a season high five tackles against Southern University (9-24-11) and North Carolina A&T (11-5-11).

Also returning to take the left defensive end position will be Branden Davis, a 6-4 senior from Jacksonville, Fla., who saw action in nine games, as he tallied nine tackles (4 UA, 5 A), recording a season high five tackles against Hampton (9-8-11). FAMU will have the services of Brandon Forge, a 6-5 red shirt sophomore from Dallas, Texas and Ellie Hyppolite, a 6-4 senior from Daytona Beach, Fla., who played in seven games and recorded eight tackles last year.

Linebackers

At linebackers, FAMU will return starters Brandon Hepburn and Bobby Jackson. Hepburn, a 6-4 senior from Pomona, N.Y., who also graduated this spring (Chemistry), finished last season as the team's second leading tackler, recording 63 tackles (41 UA, 22A), 3.5 tackles for loss, one sack, two pass breakups, two quarterback hurries and one forced fumble. Hepburn tallied a season high 14 tackles (10 UA, 4 A) against Howard University (10-8-11) and had a 10-tackle performance against South Florida (9-17-11).

At strong side linebacker will be Jackson, a senior from Miami, Fla., who recorded 29 tackles (20 UA, 9 A), 4.5 sack, half sack, one interception and two quarterback hurries in the ten games that he played in.

Also returning to the linebacker corps will be Michael Ducree, a 6-2 junior from Orlando, Fla., who was a walk on in the 2010 season. He finished the 2011 season with 14 tackles (7 UA, 7 A), and one tackle for loss in the ten games that he saw action.

Making the transition from defensive end to linebacker will be Derrick Connor, a 6-4 sophomore from Miami, Fla., who saw action in two games.

The Secondary

FAMU will return a seasoned secondary that recorded 17 of the Rattlers 22 interceptions.

The Rattlers will return a pair of corners that are small in stature but big on performance in Devontae "Terry" Johnson, and Marvin Ross.

Johnson, a 5-11 sophomore from Tallahassee, Fla., saw action in all 11 of FAMU's games as he led the team in interceptions with five. He finished the season with 32 tackles (25 UA, 7 A), 0.5 tackles for loss and five pass breakups. Johnson tallied a season high seven tackles against Hampton (9-8-11) and recorded two five tackle performances against Southern University (9-24-11) and Howard University (10-8-11).

Ross, a 5-10 senior from Jacksonville, Fla., who finished the season with 38 tackles (33 UA, 5 A), one tackle for loss, two interceptions and five pass breakups. Ross tallied a season high six tackles against North Carolina A&T (11-5-11) and four tackles against Hampton (9-8-11), Savannah State (10-15-11) and South Carolina State (10-22-11).

Also slated to see action in 2012 will be Patrick Aiken, a 5-10 sophomore from Pembroke Pines, Fla., who saw action in four games as he recorded two tackles.

FAMU will also have the services of two experienced safeties: John Ojo and Devan Roberts.

Ojo, a 6-3 senior from Tallahassee, Fla., who impressed NFL Scouts in the FAMU underclassmen pro day, started in all 11 of the Rattlers games as he tallied 42 tackles (30 UA, 12 A), four interceptions and one pass breakup. He recorded a season high nine tackles against South Florida (9-8-11) and Savannah State (10-15-11) and recorded seven total takedowns against Bethune-Cookman (11-19-11).

In addition, he recorded two interceptions against Fort Valley State (9-3-11) and Howard University (10-8-11) at the free safety position.

Also expected to fight for the starting free safety position will be Jonathan Pillow, a 6-0 junior from Jacksonville, Fla., who recorded 18 tackles (10 UA, 8 A) in the eight games that he played in last season.

At strong safety will be Roberts, a 6-1 junior from Ocala, Fla., saw action in all 11 games as he tallied 31 tackles (18 UA, 13 A), one tackle for loss, one quarterback hurry, one pass breakup and one blocked kicked on the season. Roberts recorded a season high 11 tackles against North Carolina A&T (11-5-11).

Special Teams

On special teams, FAMU will return Branden Holden, a 6-2 senior from Jacksonville, Fla.,

2012 FLORIDA A&M FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

who served as the Rattlers primary punter. Last he tallied 2,481 yards on 61 boots to average 40.7 yards per punt. Holdren boasted seven punts on the season for 50-plus yards as he recorded a 78-yard boot against North Carolina Central (11-12-11) and garnered a 58 yard punt against Bethune-Cookman (11-19-11).

Chase Varnadore, a 5-11 sophomore from Tallahassee, Fla., will assume all the kickoffs and PAT duties, due to the graduation of All-Conference performer Trevor Scott.

2012 Schedule

The 2012 FAMU Football schedule will feature the return of some familiar opponents as the Rattlers will open the season against Tennessee State (Sept. 1) in the Big John Merritt Classic in Nashville, Tenn.

Then the Rattlers will head west as they will take on Big 12 member the University of Oklahoma (Sept. 8) in a first ever meeting in Norman, Okla.

FAMU will then return to the comforts of Bragg Memorial Stadium as they will open MEAC play against Hampton University on Sept. 15.

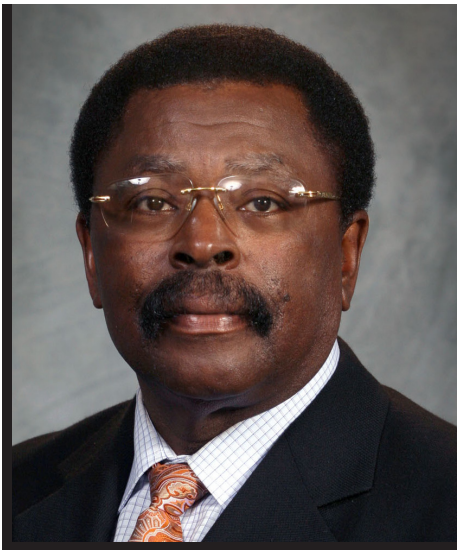

The Rattler Gridders will then have three straight road contests as they close out the month of September at Delaware State (Sept. 22) in Dover, Del., and against Southern University (Sept. 29) in the Bank of America Football Classic in Atlanta, Ga., before opening the month of October against Howard University of Oct. 6 at Greene Stadium in Washington, D.C.

Then FAMU will return to Tallahassee for back-to-back to home contests as they the Rattlers will face Savannah State on Oct. 13 and then South Carolina State on Oct. 20.

After a week's hiatus the Rattlers will travel to Greensboro to take on North Carolina A&T on Nov. 3, and then will return home to celebrate homecoming as they will take North Carolina Central on Nov. 10.

FAMU will then close out the 2012 campaign as they will take on Bethune-Cookman on Nov. 17 in annual Blue Cross/Blue Shield Florida Classic.

Florida A&M University head football coach Joseph "Joe" Taylor has returned the Rattler program to the ranks of the elite in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, and has the team poised contend for a spot among the top teams in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) after just three seasons at the helm.

Taylor, who has fashioned a Hall of Fame career over 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach, believes that true professionalism, high character and great work ethic are the foundation for a successful program.

Now in his fifth season at FAMU, Taylor, who is a four-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Coach of the Year (1997, 2004, 2005, 2006), has been a smashing success in his brief time heading the Rattler Football program.

Last season FAMU finished with a 7-4 overall record and a 5-3 record in conference play for a third place finished in the MEAC.

In his inaugural season at FAMU (2008), Taylor and his Rattlers missed having an unblemished season by 17 points, finishing 9-3 overall and a 5-3 in conference play good, for second in the MEAC, after a disastrous 3-8 finish the previous year (2007) – marking one of the best one year turnarounds in the country.

The following season (2009), the Rattlers finished 8-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC, good for a second place finish in the league.

That club produced the 2009 MEAC Offensive Player of the Year in Curtis Pulley and the Division I FCS All-Time Punt Returner for TDs in LeRoy Vann, who finished his career with eight (8) TD runbacks, surpassing Kenny Shedd (1989-92) of University of Northern Iowa, while tying the NCAA single season TD punt return record with five (5) set by North Carolina A&T's Curtis DeLoatch in 2001. He also finished his career with 11 total TDs on kick returns, including the three (3) on kickoffs he tallied in 2008.

In 2010 Taylor became the most successful coach in school history as he became the first coach in school history to win 25 games in his first three years at FAMU.

That season the Rattlers finished the regular season 8-3 overall and 7-1 in conference play, earning a share of the 2010 MEAC Championship (along with Bethune-Cookman and South Carolina State) – the Rattlers' first title in nine years.

In addition, Taylor and his team handed archrival Bethune-Cookman their only regular season loss, 38-27 in the 31st Florida Classic at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Fla., capping off a six-game winning streak to close the season.

To date, Taylor's career coaching record of 229-91-4 (.712) places him on the national level as the second winningest active coach in the Division I FCS (formerly I-AA) when ranked by total victories, and sixth when ranked by winning percentage.

TAYLOR'S WORKING CAREER....

Coach Taylor began his professional career as a physical education instructor with the District of Columbia school system, quickly establishing himself as a builder of championship programs.

He also served as an assistant football coach at H.D. Woodson High School where he helped the program win two city championships.

In addition, as the head wrestling coach, his teams won four consecutive city championships, and as an assistant baseball coach, he helped guide that squad to three city championships.

His collegiate coaching career began as offensive line coach at Eastern Illinois in 1978.

That same season the Panthers captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

In 1980 he moved on to become the offensive coordinator at Virginia Union University, serving in that capacity for two years.

In 1982 he joined the Howard University staff as the defensive coordinator, then was named head coach the following season (1983), during which the Bison finished 1-9.

Let go from Howard after that one season, Taylor returned to Virginia Union as head coach in 1984, guiding the Panthers to an undefeated regular season and a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Championship in just three short years.

During his eight-year tour at Virginia Union (1984-91), Taylor led the Rams to a sizzling 60-19-3 record, eight straight winning seasons, three conference titles and three NCAA Division Two playoff berths.

In 1992, he moved to Hampton University, where in 16 seasons Taylor would become the most successful coach in school history.

At Hampton, Taylor guided the Pirates to four Black College Championships, eight conference titles, a Heritage Bowl Championship and seven trips to the NCAA playoffs, while compiling a 136-48-1 overall record from 1992 through 2007.

Taylor proved an instant success when he joined the Hampton University family in 1992, leading the Pirates to three consecutive CIAA titles and two consecutive NCAA playoff appearances.

In 1993 Taylor led the Pirates to an undefeated regular season and the quarterfinal round of the national playoffs, becoming the first CIAA team in history to win 12 games in a season, finishing the year with an overall mark of 12-1.

In their last season of Division II competition, the 1994 Pirates added yet another milestone with a 10-1 finish and the Sheridan Broadcasting Network's (SBN) Jake Gaither Trophy, the prestigious honor recognizing the Historically Black College National Champion.

The 1994 Pirates also broke the CIAA total offense record with 5,575 yards, becoming the first CIAA team to finish the season averaging more than 500 yards of total offense per game.

Hampton dominated its final seven opponents as the Pirates averaged 54.2 points per game while limiting their opposition to a mere 14.2 points per game, extending their CIAA winning streak to 23 games.

The Pirates were recognized as the NCAA Division II statistical champion for scoring offense (46.4 ppg) and rushing defense (66.0 ypg).

Debuting in the Division I FCS and the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in 1995, the Pirates faced just four conference opponents, finishing 3-1 in those contests.

They led the MEAC in both total offense (396.3 ypg) and total defense (122.3 ypg), finishing their first season of Division I FCS competition with an impressive 8-3 record.

The 1997 season saw Hampton win its first MEAC title, also earning the Pirates their first bid to the I-AA playoffs with a 10-2 record.

The Pirates were also crowned SBN National Champions for the second time in four years.

In 1998 Hampton repeated as MEAC Champions and made its second consecutive appearance in the FCS playoffs.

The 2004 season saw Hampton climb back atop the MEAC standings thanks to an astonishing defense and solid offensive and special teams play.

The Pirate defense led the country in turnovers forced with 43, while they also led the FCS in kickoff return average as Jerome Mathis set a national record with five kickoff returns for touchdowns.

Offensively, Hampton featured the second highest scoring unit in the nation at better than 43 points per game, including four 50-point efforts.

The Pirates continued their championship ways in 2005 and 2006, becoming the first team in more than 20 years to capture three consecutive MEAC titles.

A MAN HELD IN HIGH REGARD

Coach Taylor's hard work, determination and commitment to excellence have made him a pioneer amongst his peers as evident by his multiple leadership positions.

- An ex-officio member of the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association, Taylor was recognized in 2006 by Sports Illustrated as one of four finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award.
- The 2001 President of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), he is the chairman the AFCA Minority Issues Committee and the Board of Directors of the American Football Coaches Foundation.

- He has been selected as the Coach of the Year by several professional organizations such as the Washington, D.C. Pigskin Club, the Norfolk Sports Club, the American Football Coaches Association, and the Atlanta, Florida and Richmond Touchdown Clubs.
- In 2000 Taylor was honored with the Johnny Vaught Lifetime Achievement Award by the All-American Football Foundation and a year later he was inducted into the Western Illinois University Hall of Fame.
- Member of the AFCA Advisory Editorial Committee
- 2009 Inductee into the Virginia Union Hall of Fame
- 2008 Inductee into the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Member of the APR Working Group Committee
- Member of the FCS Coaches Poll Voting Committee

Florida A&M University

Highlights and Accomplishments

Florida A&M University has received numerous national rankings from U.S. News and World Report to Princeton. Here are some of those rankings:

Florida A&M University was named one of the Top 15 most popular national universities in the nation by U.S. News and World Report. FAMU was the only historically black college or university that is ranked in the Top 15 with other Ivy League universities such as Harvard, Stanford, Yale, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Princeton. University of Florida is the only other university in Florida to be listed in the top 20.

For the second year in a row, FAMU has been selected by The Princeton Review for its list of the 322 top green campuses in the United States and Canada. FAMU is the only historically black college and university to be selected.

FAMU was ranked as the No. 1 public historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) in the 2012 U.S. News and World Report college ranking for HBCUs.

In September 2011, Washington Monthly magazine ranked FAMU as one of the “Top 100 National Universities.” This was FAMU’s second consecutive year making the list.

In September 2011, FAMU was named one of Forbes magazine 2011 Best Colleges in the nation in their annual ranking of top colleges.

In August 2011, FAMU was named one of the best colleges in the Southeast by The Princeton Review. It is one of 135 institutions The Princeton Review recommends in its “Best in the Southeast” section of its website feature, “2012 Best Colleges: Region by Region.”

In April 2011, FAMU was selected as one of The Princeton Review’s “311 Green Colleges: 2011 Edition.” The university was the only historically black college or university (HBCU) to make the list, which focused solely on colleges that have demonstrated a strong commitment to sustainability in their academic offerings, campus infrastructure, activities and career preparation.

In April 2011, FAMU won the 22nd the Annual Honda Campus All-Star Challenge becoming the 2011 champions. Averaging more than 455 points per game, the most of any team, FAMU won the top prize of $50,000 in university grants for their national championship win. FAMU won the national championships in 2005, 2003, 1999, 1998, 1996 and 1991.

In 2010, National Academies ranked FAMU No. 1 in the nation as the institution of origin for African Americans who earn doctorates in natural science and engineering.

Students in the School of Business and Industry won the National Team Selling Competition hosted by the Center for Global Sales Leadership at Indiana University in October 2010. The competition featured teams from Indiana University, Michigan State University, University of Kansas, University of Florida, Penn State, Ball State University and Syracuse University.

In April 2009, two FAMU students won the 2009 Ford HBCU Business Classic Competition. As the grand prize winner, the student team won $35,000 in personal scholarships and $15,000 for FAMU.

In 2008, FAMU raised more than $1 million toward its goal of $1.5 million for the Tom Joyner Foundation breaking a record for raising more money than any other historically black college or university.

Florida A&M University

Highlights and Accomplishments

On November 15, 2008, FAMU became the first historically black college or university to host ESPN College GameDay.

In 2008, Diverse Issues in Higher Education cited FAMU as the #1 producer of African-Americans baccalaureate degree holders.

In 2008, students in the School of Nursing received a 100 percent pass rate on the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses, which is used by state, commonwealth and territorial boards of nursing to assist in making licensure decisions.

In 2008 for the second consecutive year, FAMU School of Business and Industry MBS students were crowned national champions of the National Black MBA Association's National Student Case Competition making history as the first university to achieve such a feat. The competition featured teams from Duke University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the University of Tennessee, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and the University of Texas at Austin.

FAMU was listed in BusinessWeek as one of the country's "Most Innovative Colleges" in the area of technology transfer. Technology transfer involves moving a novel development from one organization or environment into another. Often this movement is from a federal or university laboratory into a commercial operation, capitalizing on the investment in research and development that was initially intended for use by the government or for the advancement of science.

The FAMU School of Business and Industry won the National MBA Association 2007 CASE competition sponsored by Chrysler Corporation. The SBI students competed against such major universities as Duke, Penn State and Rutgers.

FAMU faculty was ranked second in the nation by the National Science Foundation in the production of research publications in global science issues, outranking larger universities that have greater resources.

In 2007, Black Enterprise named FAMU the No. 1 institution for African Americans.

Florida A&M University 2007 pharmacy graduates achieved a 100 percent passage rate on the North American Pharmacy Licensure Examination (NAPLEX) exceeding the state and national rate. Seventy-three (73) candidates of the Class of 2007 took the NAPLEX and all passed. In addition, FAMU's school average score of 119.15 exceeded the state and national averages of 118.77 and 116.00 respectively. The state passing rate was 98.22 percent and the national rate was 97.23 compared to FAMU's 100 percent.

On average, approximately 15 Ph.D.s in physics are awarded to African Americans in the United States each year, according to data from the National Science Foundation (NSF). Florida A&M University awarded five Ph.D. degrees in physics to African Americans during the 2006-2007 academic year—a significant portion of the total national output.

Students in the Institute of Public Health (IPH), housed in the College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences (COPPS), received a 100 percent pass rate on the National Commission for Health Education Credentialing, Inc. (NCHEC) national certification examination. According to the NCHEC, the national average percent pass rate is 76.63 percent. This is the second consecutive year students at FAMU received a 100 percent passage rate.

In 1997, FAMU was selected as the Time Magazine Princeton Review "College of the Year."
