

DEAR SOONER BASKETBALL FAN:

Basketball at the University of Oklahoma is the most successful it has ever been. We have recruited players who are just as tough in the classroom as they are on the court, we are more involved in the community than ever before, and we are becoming a dominant powerhouse across the nation.

We are asking for you to support Oklahoma Women's Basketball by becoming a member of the Fast Break Club. While your financial support is important for our program, we also need your presence. The members of the Fast Break Club do more than just donate money; they donate their time and effort to supporting our student-athletes in all their endeavors. By becoming involved in every aspect of our program, Fast Break Club members have the opportunity to know our players on a personal basis.

The Fast Break Club has played a pivotal role in our program's rise to national prominence. Your membership and support will ensure that our team has a competitive advantage.

Championships are a collective effort. We value your support and look forward to opportunities to expand and improve our relationship with you. Great things are happening here, and we would love for you to be part of it! Please join or renew your membership today. If you have any further questions about the Fast Break Club, call the Women's Basketball office at 405.325.8322. Thank you for your support, and we look forward to seeing you at the Lloyd Noble Center!

SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT

Desiree Taylor,
Britney Brown and Marita Hynes

Collegiate athletics has the power to bring its fans extraordinary excitement and pride. Certainly that is the case with the OU Women's Basketball team, which has given fans many seasons to remember. The recently established basketball endowment campaign gives OU's elite fans the opportunity to support the program in a special way that leaves a legacy for the donors and student-athletes.

The Fast Break Club, along with the Sooner Stilettoes, chose to be a part of this program by honoring former University of Oklahoma employee, Marita Hynes. For 27 years, Hynes served as a head coach, administrator, and senior woman administrator. Hynes has been called "a pioneer" in women's athletics over the last quarter century. Growing up in an era when females were treated as second-class citizens in the sports arena, she spent much of her adult life championing equal rights and a level playing field for women in sports.

In recognition of her accomplishments and her dedication to the Women's Basketball program, the Fast Break Club made a generous donation to secure her place in OU women's basketball history. The Marita Hynes Endowed Scholarship will be used to underwrite the costs of tuition, room, board, books, academic support, and other student services for a women's basketball player at the University of Oklahoma. The foundation player who was honored along with Hynes is Desiree Taylor and the first recipient of the scholarship was Britney Brown.

To make a donation that will be directly applied to this Fast Break Club opportunity and help ensure the continued success of OU Women's Basketball, please fill out the amount you would like to contribute under "Additional Contribution" on the form below. The overwhelming generosity and enthusiasm shown by Sooner fans continues to make Oklahoma Women's Basketball one of the elite programs in the country.
